Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CHICAGO, May 20, 1868.

No progress was made in the Republican Convention to-day beyond organizing and getting ready for business to-morrow. General Hawley makes an excellent presiding officer, and will be able to complete everything to-morrow at two sessions, unless there should be a protracted fight over the Vice Presidency, which is now not improbable.

THE FENTON MOVEMENT.

The southern States were all admitted this morning without argument or reason, and having one hundred and seventy votes it would enable them to control the nominations. None of these are full, but are busily substituting northern men in order to get their full votes. When they were chosen, and up till yesterday they were all either for Wade or Wilson, but the Albany lobby has been so convincing that to-night a number of these delegations have flopped over to Fenton. The charges of money and promises for material aid in large amounts, are openly made, and instead of being denied are justified. This conduct is causing considerable scandal and will probably react against Fenton. There is an anti-Fenton crowd here from New York, and they have had Covode's celebrated letter to Fenton printed and circulated all over the city, thus injuring him considerably.

ESTIMATED STRENGTH OF THE CANDIDATES.

The most careful canvass that can be made to-night gives for Wade: Alabama, 10; Arkansas, 4; California, 10; Connecticut, 8; Delaware, 6; Florida, 6; Georgia, 12; Illinois, 14; Iowa, 2; Kansas, 2; Kentucky, 20, [Speed first;] Maryland 12, [Creswell first;] Minnesota, 8; Mississippi, 4; Missouri, 20; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 4; North Carolina, 18; Ohio, 42; Pennsylvania, 10; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 6; Vermont, 2; West Virginia, 5; total 249. When Curtin is withdrawn Wade will get Pennsylvania solid, and enough men to nominate him from various sources, there being now in full Convention, 640 votes, and 321 necessary to choice.

The same canvass gives Fenton Alabama, 4; Arkansas, 2; Connecticut, 2; Illinois, 3; Iowa, 10; Kansas, 2; Louisiana, 14; Mississippi, 4; New York, 66; Vermont, 1; Wisconsin, 7; Tennessee, 6; total, 121.

CURTIN—Pennsylvania, 39; Vermont, 1; Wisconsin, 2; total, 42.

WILSON—Alabama, 4; Connecticut, 2; Georgia, 6; Massachusetts, 24; Mississippi, 4; South Carolina, 12; Texas, 6; Virginia, 20; total, 78.

HAMLIN—Arkansas, 2; Illinois, 13; Iowa, 2; Maine, 14; Wisconsin, 1; New Hampshire, 3; Total, 35.

COLFAX—Illinois, 2; Indiana, 26; Iowa, 4; Kansas, 2; Michigan, 16; Missouri, 3; New Jersey, 10; Oregon, 6; Tennessee, 4; Vermont, 5; West Virginia, 5; Wisconsin, 6; Total, 89.

Rhode Island will vote for Sprague on several ballots.

The action of the Convention in making a rule to allow every delegate to vote as he desire through his Chairman, lets loose the anti-Curtin element in Pennsylvania, to vote for Fenton on New York.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

Twelve o'clock.—The Pennsylvania delegation had a meeting to-night at which forty were present. A ballot was taken, when thirty-eight votes were given for Curtin, one for Wade and one for Colfax. The other twelve are Wade men and did not attend. They rescinded the resolution requiring the State to vote as a unit and will probably compromise to-morrow by voting first, for Curtin and then fifty-two for Wade. They passed resolutions unanimously denouncing the Republican Senators who voted for acquittal. A committee of eight, Col. Thompson, chairman, was appointed on Resolutions. They are still in session, and will not conclude their labors until to-morrow morning.

The sentiment of the delegates in the Committee was unreservedly strong in favor of paying government bonds according to the letter and spirit of the law creating them, and in favor of a return to specie payments at the earliest moment. The question of suffrage was not mentioned.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform will be planted securely on Congressional reconstruction and impeachment, but will not name any of the recreants. There is little or no doubt expressed of Wade's nomination for Vice President, as there does not seem to be any adverse combination likely to be successful, and the Fenton men cannot buy enough Southern votes to save them.

CONVENTION PROCEEDINGS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, May 20.—At 12:30 P. M. Governor Ward, Chairman of the National Republican Committee, called the Convention to order. In a brief address he urged the delegates to take no step backward, to demonstrate that the war was no failure, and an emancipated race lifted from slavery to-day unites with the Republican party to maintain Republican liberty. Neither armed treason nor political treachery can arrest the triumph of our cause. [Applause.] If you designate as leader the great captain of the age, the nation will greet it as a precursor of victory to our cause and peace to the public. [Applause.]

Prayer by Bishop Simpson.

On motion of Mr. Ward, General Carl Schurz, of Missouri, was made temporary Chairman, and was conducted to the chair amid applause.

General Schurz delivered a brief address, in which he returned thanks, and sketched the history of the Republican party, and its triumphs in support of liberty, union, humanity and equal rights. The problem of the future is to secure the fruits of the past, and adapt the country to the new order of things. This required the greatest prudence and firmness. In referring to Lincoln, he said we measure our loss through his death by what he left behind him. (Laughter and applause.) With good counsel and moral courage victory will be true to the Republican party so long as the Republican party is true to itself. Let not persons carry us beyond the bounds of wisdom and self-respect. (Applause.) He counselled wisdom; justice to the soldier, to the Southern Union men; to the colored race and to the National creditors. This sentiment excited great enthusiasm. Let us be just inside of the party as well as out of it.

Mr. Smithers, of Delaware, to complete the preliminary organization, moved that the following gentlemen be elected temporary Secretaries: John R. Cowan, Ohio; Luther Caldwell, New York; Frank F. Richards, Tennessee. The motion was agreed to. It was then ordered that the Secretaries call the roll of States, and that each delegation respectively shall name one gentleman, and that those thus named shall constitute a Committee on Credentials.

Mr. Smithers said: "As I understand, there are two States, Maryland and California, in which the delegations are contested. I suggest that these States be omitted, and their claims be decided by the Committee on Credentials." When the Secretary called California, and the delegation named Gen. P. E. Conner, Mr. Smithers said, "There seems to be some misunderstanding. I understand that the States in which the delegations were contested were to be omitted."

Mr. Sears, of California, said: "As the gentleman has mentioned the State which I, in part, represent, I wish to deny that there is any contest whatever in regard to the State of California. It is true, sir, that there is a man here who has been before the Executive Committee claiming to contest our seats; but, sir, there is one man only."

General Van Zandt, of Rhode Island, rose to a point of order: "This matter should be referred to the Committee on Credentials."

Mr. Sears, of California, asked two minutes to make an explanation. He said we do not desire to bring this contest up here; but the gentleman has forced it upon us. The man here who contests our seats voted a Copperhead ticket at the last election in California. [Hear, henr.] He and one or two others met in a back room and selected delegates to attend this Convention. They have no party; they have had no primary election; they had no Convention; they had nothing; and I believe in my humble judgment that he comes here with his passage paid by Democratic money to keep up this division in our State. We are here representing the Union Republican party of California. We polled forty thousand votes in that State at the last election, (applause) and the stinking, crawling split which this man represents only polled two thousand, and out of that two thousand in our last Convention they could not find in all the State of California one who would accept this position which he occupies. The selected men, who had formerly lived in California, (two of them are in your city,) came into our rooms last night and repudiated the entire proceeding and said they were for us. We ask this Convention to give us our seats, as they of right belong to us, and not cast a stain upon us and raise this man to the dignity of a contestant. (Laughter and applause.) I cannot understand why the Committee has recognized him in the slightest degree, unless the crawling Copperhead, like the serpent did Eve, has deceived them with his oily tongue. (Laughter and applause.) Now, sir, there is no contest in California and I have done. I simply ask this Convention not to dignify him, or the little squad to which he belongs, and cast a stain upon us by compelling us to go before this Committee on Credentials with a contest when there is none.

Mr. B. R. Nickerson, California, a contestant, said: "I wish to ask whether this Convention is prepared to hear in open Convention the question which we are prepared to submit where we suppose it belongs, namely, in the Committee on Credentials." Several delegates urged that this debate was out of place; that the case should go to the Committee on Credentials, and it was so referred.

The Secretary proceeded with the call of States, but omitted to call either of the States unrepresented in Congress. A delegate made the point of order that the States were to be called alphabetically. The President, "that is just what we are doing." The delegate responded—"Arkansas, Alabama, and Georgia have not been called. Why are they not called when harmonizing with the wishes of the Convention?" The President—"The call of the National Committee did not include those States, they were not wanted to be represented here. It was to be left to the Convention when assembled to decide upon what their standing is." The delegate replied—"The point of order I make is why the order of the Convention to call the States in their alphabetical order is not complied with. We would like to know why the names of Arkansas, Alabama, and Georgia have not thus far been called?" Another delegate moved that all the Southern States be called. Which was agreed to.

A delegate—"As Colorado is only out by the veto of Andrew Johnson, and as she will undoubtedly be in in time for the Presidential election, I move that Colorado be called."

Delegate—I hold that ever since the close of the war the Congress of the United States has practically controlled the Southern States as territories. Upon that basis the whole theory of reconstruction rests. If it is not correct, then they have been wronged from the first, and Andrew Johnson and the men who have adhered to him have been right in their position. The State of Colorado does not occupy her position on the roll of States. I hold that she is where she properly belongs as a territory until she comes in by Congressional action full and complete over the President's veto. There is no half way place in the making of States. They are admitted or they are not admitted, and as in the case of the Southern States I voted aye with the majority, because I wanted to move to reconsider the vote admitting them here. I saw it was taken without reflection. These Southern States occupy in the Federal Union, to-day, so far as Congressional action is concerned, precisely the position which the State of Colorado occupies. Arkansas is asking admission, and I trust her delegates will be admitted upon this floor. Coming myself from a border State, I know what the border men have had to contend with during the last five years, and I shall be the last man, directly or indirectly, to throw anything in the way or upon the character of any man coming here from the border States, and I do not wish this Convention, by its action, seemingly to cast a reflection upon the character of its representatives in Congress during the last three years.

Mr. Spaulding, of Ohio, said, "If I vote for the admission of Colorado to vote in this Convention, I shall vote for the admission of the other Territories in the same way. They are entitled to seats, but are not voting members. All I ask is that we treat the Territories all alike. If we vote to receive Colorado, let us vote to receive the others. I am myself for the largest liberty."

Mr. McClure, of Pennsylvania, said there was a difference between Colorado in this Convention and any other territory. Colorado has been authorized by Congress to frame a constitution preparatory to her admission into the Union. She has framed that constitution and elected her Senators and applied to Congress for admission. Congress has passed a bill for her admission, and she is only denied it by force of the matchless traitor of the Union, Andrew Johnson. Colorado is still before Congress. a bill was reported for her admission again, and I hope she will not be put in the position of the other territories, but that she will be admitted to all the rights and privileges of this Convention.

Mr. Sharp, of New York—It is the opinion of New York that this Convention is competent to decide upon every case as it comes up for itself, and we are in favor of the admission of Colorado over the President's veto. [Applause.] The motion to call Colorado with the other States was then put and carried.

Mr. Saunders, of Minnesota—Mr. President—I think a journey of three thousand miles is considerable to pay for the privilege of sitting here, for three days in Crosby's Opera House. Nobody has a profounder interest in the success of Republican principles than those men that have taken their lives and their convictions in their hands, and have gone to the new empires that are growing in the west. For one, I have come to represent the wishes and to give voice to the thousands of the Republicans of Montana, a people as patriotic, feeling as profound an interest in your action, as any people between the Atlantic and the Pacific. I think the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. McClure) is mistaken when he says that such was the action of the Baltimore Convention. I believe it has been uniformly the custom to give those new communities at least one vote in the Convention, and I appeal to the generosity and liberality, if not to the justice, of this Convention, to give us that privilege, and I move to amend the gentleman's resolution by such a proposition as that.

Mr. McClure, of Pennsylvania—I desire to repeat, what I remember most distinctly, that in 1864 the territories and a portion of the Southern States were admitted to the floor of the Convention, but not permitted to vote.

Mr. Grout, of Vermont—I am not in the habit of attending Conventions; I don't know what the practice may be. It is announced by Mr. McClure, from Pennsylvania, that the practice has never been to give a vote to delegates from Territories. Now, upon this principle, I should suppose that would be so. If it be true, then we have, in the first place, practice and precedent by which to be guided. We can go back of that however, if the precedent is wrong, and settle the matter on principle. What is the proposition? The proposition is to call these territories, all of them. A gentleman in the rear somewhere, makes the motion that all the territories be called that have sent delegations here. It is impossible for the gentleman calling the roll to know what Territories have sent delegations. The only way is to call all, and that would include Alaska. One gentleman proposes to except Utah. Another gentleman might propose to call the roll of the new Territories about to be formed, and the Territory of Wyoming might ask that a delegate be called from that expected Territory. Now it seems to me that this is mere boy's play. Now, if we call the Territories, and appoint a Committee on credentials, they have a right to say what representatives shall be admitted from the States. It opens the door, Mr. Chairman, at least to the right of representation in the nomination of a President and a Vice President. Now, if these territories have no voice in voting for a President or Vice President, why should they have a vote in nominating them? It seems to me it is opening a wide door and will only make confusion, and that the only way will be to shut the door against all. The vote has already been taken to admit Colorado, with the expectation that all be admitted. If it is not admitted to cast its vote finally, if it only comes in here and helps to nominate a President and Vice President, but is not admitted to vote at the Presidential election, the Territory of Colorado may have made the Vice President of the United States, and not cast even a solitary vote for the Vice President. That is wrong. Upon principle, it is wrong, and if the Convention will attentively consider it I think they will see it.

A delegate from Ohio—The Southern States, Mr. Chairman, expect to be admitted so that their vote shall be received and counted. We expect that, notwithstanding Johnson's vetoes, Colorado will be in the Union, so that she can vote. The proposition now is that the Territories, including the District of Columbia, shall be called, which is a different proposition from the one before. It is not a question whether these Territories will participate in the election. I am not prepared to say how the question will be determined, but it is obvious that we shall save time, and proceed more orderly, by leaving this question to the Committee on Credentials, and therefore I make that motion. Agreed to.

Mr. Cochran, of New York, moved that until the adoption of permanent rules for the government of the Convention, the rules of the House of Representatives of the United States be the rules for its temporary government, as far as applicable. Agreed to.

A delegate moved that a committee of one from each State be appointed upon permanent organization. Agreed to.

A delegate from West Virginia moved to reconsider the vote by which it was determined to call the roll of the States which are now in process of reconstruction. He said the purpose of the motion was to refer that matter where it properly belongs, to the Committee on Credentials.

A motion to lay the motion to reconsider upon the table was agreed to.

The call of the State was proceeded with, and the following were designated as the Committee on Permanent Organization, from the first thirteen States called: California, W. E. Lovett; Colorado, Jno. Evans; Connecticut, A. H. Byington; Delaware, Wilson L. Sumner; Florida, B. E. Chamberlain; Georgia, W. H. Watson; Illinois, Amos C. Babcock; Indiana, George A. Buskirk; Iowa, Seth H. Crane; Kansas, Jno. A. Baztlett; Kentucky, Oscar H. Burbridge; Louisiana, Geo. C. Penance; Maine, Wales Hubbard; Massachusetts, Alfred R. Field; Michigan, Hampton Briggs; Minnesota, P. C. Amberly; Nebraska, E. C. Stevens; Nevada, H. H. Beck; New Hampshire, John H. Bailey; New Jersey, Thomas H. Bartlett; Mississippi, Hamilton Harris; North Carolina, W. R. Myers; Ohio, Israel Green; Pennsylvania, Jas. Horne; Rhode Island, Lysander Flagg, South Carolina, B. F. Whittlemore; Texas A. H. Longly; Vermont, W. H. Grant; Virginia, F. M. Kimball; West Virginia, (name not understood); Wisconsin, E. Scott Sloane; Maryland, (declined to name a committee man until her contested seats should be settled).

The Secretary then proceeded to call the roll of States for members of the Committee on Resolutions, with the following result: Alabama, David C. Upton; Arkansas, W. D. Morse; Connecticut, J. W. Woodman; Delaware, C. T. Taylor; Georgia, H. M. McCoy; Illinois, Herman Paster; Indiana, Reed W. Thompson; Iowa, George M. Dodge; Kansas, B. F. Simpson; Kentucky, Chas. Eggerton; Louisiana, W. R. Benson; Maine, Eugene Hall; Massachusetts, Francis W. Bird; Maryland, Jno. L. Holmes, jr; Michigan, Robt. R. Beecher; Minnesota, R. M. McLaren; Mississippi, Robt. T. Warehome; Nebraska, R. W. Turner; Nevada, C. E. Delong; New Hampshire, James T. Briggs; New Jersey, John Davidson; New York, Charles Andrews; North Carolina, L. D. Hess; Ohio, John C. Lee; Oregon, H. R. Kineard; Pennsylvania, S. E. Dimick; Rhode Island, Rowland G. Hazard; South Carolina, B. O. Duncan; Tennessee, Wm. Y. Elliott; Texas, G. W. Pascall; Vermont, W. H. Johnson; Virginia, Lysander Hill; West Virginia, Robt. S. Brown; Wisconsin, Horace Ruflee.

Mr. Egan, of Kentucky, offered the following resolution, which was adopted by an overwhelming vote:

Resolved, That all resolutions offered be referred without debate to the Committee on Resolutions.

On motion of Mr. McClure the roll was called the Committee on Order of Business, which resulted as follows: Alabama, Geo. N. Keynolds; Arkansas, H. H. Gardsell; Colorado, K. P. Chapin; Connecticut, David L. Sayler; Delaware, Isaac J. Jenkins; Florida, B. P. Chamberlin; Georgia, David G. Coffing; Illinois, Emory A. Slows; Indiana, George K. Steele; Iowa, L. M. Holt; Kansas, Camel W. Blank; Kentucky, Thomas J. Pickens; Louisiana, A. J. Sypher; Maine, W. P. Harriman; Massachusetts, Ester Howe; Michigan, W. B. Williams; Missouri, J. W. Bullins; Nebraska, S. H. Strickland; Nevada, O. R. Leonard; New Hampshire, Edwin Farr; New Jersey, Charles Hildrett; New York, George Barker; North Carolina, F. F. French; Ohio, Thomas L. Young; Pennsylvania, Thomas E. Cochrane; Rhode Island, W. H. Reynolds; South Carolina, J. P. M. Epping; Texas, J. P. Keating; Vermont, George C. Shepard; Virginia, John Oxford; West Virginia, Henry C. McWard; Wisconsin, A. J. Turner.

On motion of Gen. Sickles, the Convention took a recess until five o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled, pursuant to adjournment, at 5 o'clock.

The Committee on Credentials not being ready to report, Hamilton Harris, chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported the name of Joseph R. Hawley, of Conn., for permanent President of the Convention. This announcement was received with tremendous applause. The President was conducted to the chair by ex-Governor Solomon of Wisconsin, and Ex-Governor Brown, of Georgia, amid great cheering for Howley, Brown and the retiring Chairman, Gen. Schurz. When the latter presented the permanent Chairman, the Convention received him with the heartiest outburst of enthusiasm yet manifested.

Mr. Hawley addressed the Convention as follows:

Gentlemen of the Convention: I tender you my most grateful thanks for the high honor you have conferred upon me. Deeply impressed by a sense of the responsibilities of the position, I earnestly solicit your indulgence and your aid. We came together charged with the momentous duty of selecting the chief rulers of the great nation which leads the world in the promotion of freedom and equal rights. [Applause.] The indications of your purposes and spirit already given assure us that you will maintain the noble character of the Republican party. We unavoidably recall at this time the Convention of 1860 with its profound anxieties. Its fresh, pure and glowing devotion to liberty, and its enthusiastic acceptance of the wager of battle tendered by slavery and secession. (Applause.) It now seems clear to us that God then ruled our counsels. He made our declaration of principles manly and sincere. He gave us Abraham Lincoln for President. (Tremendous cheering.) God send us like wisdom and success to-day. [Applause.] He tested us in a manner and to an extent which the liveliest imagination could not have anticipated. Posterity, we hope, will decide that we met that test with the spirit worthy of a free people. Countless treasure and three hundred thousand lives offered were the evidence that we were solemnly in earnest. We offered our lives and our property, but it was not enough. We laid our prejudices of race and class upon the altar, and the consciousness that we at least deserved success redoubled our nerve. The same high resolve rules to-day, and the honest men of this country are ready for equal and even greater sacrifices, if they be indispensable, to the dedication of this Continent to liberty and equal rights. [Applause.] We learned the first lesson when we found that we must make all men free and call them to the battle-field. We learned the second lesson when we found that we must still move and give impartially to all men a share in the Government we were endeavoring to restore. [Great applause.] With a clear and fearless expression on the essential and important questions at issue, which the people well understand, and no ingenious device, no words, can obscure or avoid, passing by all personal and temporary controversies, working in perfect confidence, that the American people mean to do right and will do it, in the end we may feel sure of triumph. The power of a nation of forty millions must be behind the just claims of the poorest working man, of whatever race, to recover even just wages. Its majesty must be felt wherever the humblest loyal man appeals against personal violence and oppression. [Cheers.] Every dollar of the national debt the blood of a soldier is pledged for. [Enthusiastic cheering.] Every bond, in letter and in spirit must be as sacred as a soldier's grave. [Renewed cheers.] We must win, gentlemen, and we shall win. It is the old fight of liberty, equality and fraternity against oppression, caste and aristocracy. It is the old fight to make the world better, "with malice toward none and with charity for all." [Loud applause.] We may halt for a moment, or change direction, but the good cause always goes steadily forward. It is related, and whether it be true or not, the incident is well invented, that in the evening of that awful battle of the Wilderness, when the legions of the Union army had fought all day rather by faith than by sight, in the wild woods and tangled brush, that some man asked General Grant to step backward a little and re-organize, and that he replied: "We have done very well, gentlemen; at half-past three in the morning we move forward." [Long continued cheering.] We accept his spirit and his words. Perhaps I am not anticipating in saying that we shall accept him in person again as our leader. [Loud cheering] Thanking you again, gentlemen, very heartily, for the honor conferred, I await the further pleasure of the Convention. [Applause.]

Gen. Sickles entering the Hall here, he was received with three chairs.

The remaining officers of the permanent organization were then announced, as follows:

Vice Presidents—Alabama, Gen. Warner; Arkansas, A. McDonald; California, James Corry; Colorado, J. B. Chaffee; Connecticut, W. S. Pearson; Delaware, Lewis Thompson; Florida, H. H. Moody; Georgia, F. Blodgett; Illinois, Jessee K. Dubois; Indiana, L. Q. Greshman; Iowa, J. M. Hedrick; Kansas, S. S. Prouly; Kentucky, Joshua I. Speed; Louisiana, W. Kellogg; Maine, A. Fessenden; Maryland, Henry Stockbridge; Massachusetts, Daniel W. Gooch; Michigan, Harvey Waldson; Minnesota, Horatio P. Vaneleave; Mississippi, Thomas L. White; Missouri, A. J. Harlin, Nebraska, A. Sanders; New Jersey, M. Walker; New Hampshire, E. Gould; New Jersey, John J. Irick; New York, Chauncey M. Depew; North Carolina, Albert Dockery; Ohio, N. C. McFarland; Oregon, Josiah Farling; Pennsylvania, J. K. Moorehead; Rhode Island, G. Green; South Carolina, Carlos S. Stolbrand; Tennessee, T. A. Hamilton; Texas, S. D. Wood; Vermont, George J. Stannard; Virginia, John Burch; West Virginia, S. P. Karns; Wisconsin, Edward Solomon.

Secretaries—Thomas D. Fister, V. Doll, C. B. Bigley, F. B. Solomon, B. Bent, Joshua T. Heald, J. Rhombeur, George G. Wilber, James P. Root, Charles R. Hagate, J. H. Easton, Lewis Weel, William C. Goodloe, Col. C. W. Lowell, Stephen D. Lindsley, E. F. Waters, Geo. G. Bragg, W. W. Scott, A. W. Patterson, J. C. S. Calby, Saul Maxwell, G. R. Collins, Travers Bayer, R. C. Belville, Luther Caldwell, J. W. Holden, Coates Kinney, Max Ramsey, A. C. Harmer, Mr. Pahiter, Wm. E. Rose, J. M. Kinley, W. P. Horne, Col, S. D. Ringan, E. Allen, J. Hoke, C. Seymour, J. Longnecker.

A New York delegate asked some member from Maine to explain the name of their nominee for Vice President. Does he agree with William Pitt Fessenden on the subject of impeachment?

The delegate from Maine was happy to say that although he is a brother of the Senator, he does not agree with him.

Mr. Smith, of Indiana—Mr. President, as the first and most fitting act of this Convention, after its permanent organization, I move that General Ulysses S. Grant be declared nominated for President by acclamation. Amid cries of "no," "no," the delegate subsided.

Mr. Cochrane—Mr. President, I am informed that there is a committee in waiting from the Soldiers and Sailors' Convention, charged with the duty of presenting those proceedings to this Convention. I move that a committee of five be appointed to escort them into the presence of this Convention, so that they may here and now discharge that duty. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Bartholomew, of Pennsylvania—Mr. President, as the business of the Convention will necessarily be delayed for a few moments, preparatory to the reception of this Committee, I move that General Daniel E. Sickles be invited to address the Convention on the topics of the day. (Cheers, "good," "good.")

General Sickles—Mr. President, I beg the gentleman to withdraw his request. I should be very happy on some proper occasion to address this body; but at this time should be very reluctant to interrupt the progress of business. Besides, I am one of the delegation from the Soldiers' Convention and my duties will require me in a very few minutes to join with that Committee in its duties.

Mr. Bartholomew withdrew the motion.

The Chairman announced the Committee to receive the delegation from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention as follows: Gen. Cochrane, New York; General Schurz, Missouri; Col. Craig, Iowa; Mr. Crippett, West Virginia; Mr. Sweet, Illinois.

The delegation from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention were conducted to the front of the platform and were presented by General Cochrane, in the following remarks:

Mr. President, I have the honor, in behalf of the Committee recently appointed by yourself, to announce that they have discharged the duty to which they were appointed. I introduce to the Convention, through yourself, General Fairchilds, of Wisconsin, chairman of the Committee to which I referred. [Prolonged cheers.]

General Fairchilds—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Convention, as instructed by the members of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention I appear before you on their behalf to present to you a resolution passed unanimously by them yesterday afternoon as follows:

Resolved, That we the soldiers and sailors, steadfast now as ever to the Union and flag, fully recognize the claims of General Ulysses S. Grant to the confidence of the American people, and believing that the victories won under his guidance in war will be illustrated by him in peace by such measures as will secure the fruits of our exertions and restore the Union upon a loyal basis, we declare our deliberate conviction that he is the choice of the soldiers and sailors of the Union for the office of President of the United States. [Loud Applause.]

Gov. Fairchilds continued:

The soldiers of the United States ask the nomination of General Grant for President, because we love him, and we love him, sir, because he is loyal to the Union, loyal to justice, loyal to freedom and loyal to right, and if you will give us our comrade as a leader in the campaign of '68, we will blow up the enemy's works as we did in the field in '64. [Applause.]

The President—It is hardly necessary I should say that such a communication is received with the warmest interest from Republican soldiers and by a Republican Convention.

Mr. Spaulding, of Ohio, proposed three cheers for the soldiers and sailors, which were given with a will.

Ex-Senator Lane, of Indiana—I move that the nomination of General Ulysses Grant be now declared by acclamation of this Convention.

Mr. Tremaine, New York—I presume there is no member of the Convention who is not prepared, at the proper time, to endorse the recommendation made by the Soldiers and Sailors, and presume there is not one loyal heart that does not beat in unison with the sentiment that calls upon us to select that great Chieftain, Ulysses S. Grant, as our standard bearer. [Applause.] But, sir, I want the proceedings of this Convention to go forth with such dignity and deliberation as not only will command our approval, but the approval of those who sent us here. [Applause.] Now, I happened to be a member of the Convention in '64, when the same unanimity prevailed, and called upon the Representatives of the people to select Abraham Lincoln as their standard bearer. [Applause.] But, sir, a motion to nominate him by acclamation was superceded by a motion that the States should be called in their order, and that as each State was called we should have the moral force arising from the unanimous expression of each one of the delegates from that State. [Applause.] Sir, when that is done, the Convention will be at liberty by acclamation to second the nomination, as the people will, not only in their primary meetings, but at the polls. [Applause.] I hope, therefore, my friend from Indiana will withdraw the motion until the States can be called in their order.

Mr. Lane—I certainly have no desire to consume the time of the Convention. I only wish to get at the object. The nomination is already made, sanctioned by the people and by the whole people; but if it is thought better to call the States, call the States. [Laughter]. Call the States. [Laughter and applause].

Mr. Meech, of Indiana—We are not yet fully organized. The Committee on Credentials have not reported the delegates that are entitled to their seats here, and to do anything of the kind when we are unorganized would be improper.

Mr. Logan—I think, Mr. President, it would be a more appropriate mode of procedure to accept the report of the Committee from the Soldiers and Sailors Convention, that then, when this Convention will be fully organized, and when the States are represented by their delegates who have been accepted by the Convention, after the report of the Committee on Credentials, the order of business would be the nomination of a candidate for President. [Applause.] I know, sir, that General Grant, of whom we are all proud, from one end of this broad land to the other, is the nominee of loyal citizens, the loyal soldiers and loyal sailors of this grand and glorious country, and I simply desire to make this suggestion, that the Convention may consider it. As far as the making of the nomination by a delegate from any particular State is concerned, we Illinoisians have no pride whatever. We had as lief the nomination would come from one State as another.

Mr. Cochrane moved that the resolutions from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, as reported, be accepted, entered upon the record, and made a part of the proceedings. Adopted.

While waiting for the report of the Committee on Credentials, which it was announced would soon be ready, General Logan was called for a speech, but declined to respond at that time.

Mr. Oonway, of Louisiana, said—I suppose that it is part of the settled policy of the Republican party to-day to have the South come into the Convention and Union end foremost. [Laughter.] But we have another marked event of special moment, that there is with us to-day, in full heart and full fellowship, one of the former Governors in the days of rebellion of one of the rebellious States, who has since become reconstructed, [applause,] and has proved himself in the fire true as steel, a genuine Republican, and in full fellowship with the Republican party. I move that ex-Gov. Joseph E. Brown, of Georgia, be invited to say a few words. [Tremendous applause and cries of "Brown," "Brown."]

The Chair—It is hardly necessary to put a motion which has such a reception. Will Gov. Brown address the Convention?

Gov. Brown—Mr. Chairman, as it has been announced that the Committee will be ready to report in a few minutes, I think it might be improper that I should enter into any discussion of the questions involved at this time, and I could not do justice to myself or my section if I attempted to speak without time to review to some extent the question involved. I do not wish to intrude upon the proceedings of this Convention. I came here, as has well been remarked, a reconstructed Rebel. [Laughter and thunders of applause.] I was an original secessionist, [Laughter] and "a frank and open confession is good for the soul." [Cries of "platform," "platform," amid which Governor Brown advanced to the stage.

The Chair—Governor Brown, of Georgia, gentlemen. [Tremendous applause.]

Governor Brown—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Convention [A voice tells us your experience.] As I remarked before I left my seat, I was an original secessionist. I was born in South Carolina, growing up under the influence and teachings of that master intellect, Colhoun, then in the full glow of his meridian. I early imbibed his States rights doctrines, and I suppose that I as sincerely and religiously believed that they were correct as you believed that your opposite was sound. For years before the unfortunate struggle we have passed through I foresaw that the issue which divided the north and the south must ultimately be settled by the sword. There was no common tribunal whose judgment either side would respect. If the Supreme Court decided a question bearing upon this great issue, the party against whom the decision was made refused to abide by it, because it regarded it as political. While Mr. Clay lived, that great man, that great Pacificater, [cheers and great applause.] we were able to avert this great issue. But Mr. Clay was called from his field of usefulness. Webster died and Calhoun slept with his fathers. And when the storm again arose there was no one who could pour oil upon the troubled waters and stop the deluge. Secession was the result. I went into it cordially as a States rights man, and I stood by it [cheers] as long as there was any chance to sustain it. When the President of the Confederate States abandoned the great States rights doctrine that we commenced and were agreed upon, I differed from him. When he adopted his conscript measures, which gave him the entire control of the whole army of the Confederate States and of every officer in the army—an error, sir, you did not commit—I took issue with him. But we went through the struggle and I will not attempt now to review its history. But we of the South fell. You of the North were the conquerors, and I think I had sense enough at the end of the struggle to know when I was whipped. (Cheers.) The President of the United States, after the surrender of Gen.

SERENADE.

BY GEORGE ARNOLD.

I hear the dry-voiced insects call,
And "Come!" they say, "the night grows brief!"
I hear the dew-drops pattering fall,
From leaf to leaf—from leaf to leaf.

Your night lamp glimmers fitfully;
I watch below—you sleep above;
Yet on your blind I seem to see
Your shadow, Love—your shadow, Love!

The roses in the night-wind sway,
Their petals glistening with the dew:
As they are longing for the day,
I long for you—I long for you!

But you are in the land of dreams;
Your eyes are closed: your gentle breath
So faintly comes, your slumber seems Almost like Death—almost like Death!

Sleep on! but may my music twine
Your sleep with strands of melody,
And lead you gentle Love of mine,
To dream of me—to dream of me!

—Tupper has announced that he is about to publish a new book of poems. This is very kind in Tupper, thus to warn people of their impending fate.

—On the day of President Lincoln's assassination, a mob in San Francisco destroyed the office of the Franco Americain and damaged the office of the Monitor. These journals, or their proprietors are now, suing the city of San Francisco for heavy damages.

—Quite an excitement is felt over the office which Mr. Forney recently dropped. A rush of prominent aspirants from all parts of the country has taken place.

—The wheat crop in Virginia is looking remarkably well; all the indications all over the country are that the harvests of all sorts will be very bountiful this year.

—Jerusalem has a new Pacha, who has forbidden any further excavations. The most interesting discoveries were supposed to be on the point of being made.

—A Democratic paper at Omaha is styled the "Border Ruffian." Divested of the ornamental "border," the name is very appropriate to many democratic sheets.

—Lord Brougham's autobiography is on the tapis, and likely to create as much consternation and amusement as would Talleyrand's if published thirty years ago.

—Some of the Roman Catholic priests have so strenuously advocated total abstinence in Stamford, Conn., that two hundred men and women have taken the pledge and five of the doggeries have closed.

—Canada has a new law by which Judges are empowered to order whipping instead of imprisonment, if the prisoners are boys under fifteen, convicted of larceny.

—General McClelland is, it is said, coming to America in September to advocate actively the election of the Democratic candidate, that is if he can do anything actively.

—Shall children be allowed to play on the grass? is the important question before the park commissioners in New York. Fortunate Pittsburgh with no grass to worry one!

—Doesticks alias Mortimer Thompson, will deliver an original poem before the Twenty-eighth annual Convention of the Chi Psi Society at Schenectedy on the 4th prox.

—The Roman Catholics are building a $100,000 hospital in Troy, New York. There are no hospitals in the country better managed than those erected by this denomination.

—There is no town in the country can show any pleasanter looking streets than some in Allegheny City now. Yesterday evening they were charmingly fresh and lovely.

—We expect that Mr. Johnson's next move will be against the whiskey ring, it is his style, as we all know, to go back in the most astonishing style on those who have aided him.

—Matilda Heron has opened a dramatic studio in New York for the education of young aspirants to knowledge of the histrionic art. Some of the old ones might do well to go also.

—Judge Holmes, the man who tried to prove that Lord Bacon wrote the works of Shakespeare, and failed, denies that any professorship in Harvard college has been tendered to him.

—Patti has been married to the Marquis de Caux; that is, the civil ceremony has been performed, but the religious one will not take place until her London engagement has been completed.

—Washington Spradling was a colored barber who lived in Louisville, at last he died, when it was discovered that he owned $167,000 worth of real estate, and a good deal of personal property.

—A large number of Swiss emigrants are coming to North Carolina, Tennessee and the northern part of Alabama. We hope that they won't pine away, as Swiss peasants always do in romance.

—Africa will probably soon be settled, and the Aborigines driven out. Very valuable gold mines have been discovered nine hundred miles northwest of Natal. Gold mines precede the rapid settlement of most countries.

—Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth says that she has read through every one of Harper & Brothers' publications. If Mrs. S. has also read all her own writings, she must have an immensity of trash stowed away some place in her head.

—Glover, the composer, having lost a great deal of money, has come to this country seriously embarrassed. Some of his friends are now raising a subscription to assist him in bringing over Mrs. Glover and their ten children.

—New England Democratic journals are trying to pretend that Senator Sprague was drunk and did not know how he voted. If that Senator had voted not guilty, nothing would ever have been heard of the influence of liquor on that occasion anyhow.

—We have, as yet, heard of no one changing their passages to Europe from the steamer on which Miss Dickinson is to sail. This is probably because there are grounds for believing that the sea may keep down Miss Anna's peculiar scolding powers, although the sea is not very good at keeping anything down.

—The French having altered and improved the Dunderberg, are now very much pleased with it. They call it the Rochambeau, and expect Napoleon IV to snatch, while standing on its deck, the supremacy of the seas from England's grasp. As England has not shown any signs of possessing the supremacy, for the last fifty years, it is doubtful if she has any left.

—Kleptomani is on the increase. Worcester, Mass., has a Kleptomaniac. Kleptomania means this: If a person has respectable parents, lives in a respectable circle, and is supplied with a comfortable amount of this world's goods, yet in spite of these, will steal, he is a Kleptomoniac and his friends send him to a pleasant private madhouse instead of to a loathsome prison.

—Somebody proposes that some of the modern Mrs. Jellabys shall start a society for the propagation of crocodiles. These reptiles are much needed in the waters of the Ganges and the other Hindoo rivers. The benighted heathens throw dead bodies and living ones into the water, where in former times the amphibii devoured them, but the sacreligious bullets of European sportsmen have so thinned out these natural scavengers that the sluggish rivers are laden with putrid corpses, which breed out cholera the effects of which are felt even here.

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be adplied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desised. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

THE "CORNER" IN THE OIL MARKET.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Much has been said recently, and several communications have appeared in your journal on this subject, and a good deal still remains to be said. It is generally admitted, I believe, that there is nothing wrong in these "corners," that is, it is not a criminal offense, and possibly, looking at it as a matter of business, it is legitimate. This, however, in my judgment, depends on the way it is brought about. Any man or set of men, have an undoubted right to attempt a "corner," provided by so doing they, in case of failure, injure no one but themselves. If they have means sufficient to buy all the oil that can be delivered within a specified time, and are satisfied that in case of failure they can stand the loss, be what it may, without hurting any one else, then I say there is nothing wrong in the movement. But without being perfectly satisfied on this point, it is wrong, and no man or set of men, should attempt such a stupendous undertaking as long as there is any doubt on this point. Taking as I have done, the mildest possible view of the matter, there is, as I have already remarked, nothing wrong in these speculative movements. If a clique, by fair and honorable means, can inflate the price of oil sufficiently to make themselves rich, it is all right. But when men go into a movement of this kind without knowing how they will stand in case of failure; without feeling perfectly satisfied that they will be able in, and of themselves, to stand all the loss in case of disaster, then I hold that they are guilty, morally, if not criminally, of an offense, and if there is any way of reaching them they ought to be punished.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with seven and a half feet in the Monongahela, and eight and a half feet in the Allegheny. The weather continues clear and pleasant, and all that could be desired for the transaction of business at the landing.

The Glasgow, from St. Paul, has arrived. She looks a little the worse of the trip, having lost her smoke stacks in a gale on the Upper Mississippi.

The J. N. McCullough arrived from Cincinnati at an early hour yesterday morning, having made a remarkably good run. She will leave again to-day at noon, and we have no doubt she will go with a good trip. Passengers and shippers will bear in mind that she leaves promptly as advertised.

The Natrona, recently sold to some parties by the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, arrived from Red Bank (on the Allegheny river) with a large number of emigrants, which she has engaged to go to the Upper Missouri.

Messrs. Ghriest & Haslett will receive freight to-day near the foot of Wood street for the regular Friday Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet St. Charles.

The Grey Eagle arrived and departed for Parkersburg, as did also the Ingomar for Wheeling.

The R. C. Gray, Captain Anderson, is filling up steadily, and will be the first boat out for Madison and Louisville.

The Wild Duck left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday, and the Glendale and Alice V. were advertised to follow on Tuesday.

Captain John Woodwell, of the Arkansas river packet Caldwell, has disposed of an interest in his packet to the Memphis and Arkansas River Packet Company, and contemplates building a new packet for the same trade during the summer.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Tuesday, says: The only reliable statement we could hear yesterday as to the transportation of government freights to Forts, Sully, Rice and Stevenson is the effect that the award was probably made to H. K. Hazlett, at the rate of $1,85 per 100 lbs. It is rumored that 400 additional tons will soon be announced for competition.

The Kate Robinson arrived at St. Louis on Friday last, and the Bellevernon was expected at Louisville the same day.

The Dubuque Herald of Friday, remarks: The strife between opposition lines of packets continues with unabated vigor, prices being no object if freights are obtained. The Northern line has contracted some 700 sacks of oats at 6c per sack to St. Louis, The N. W. U. line offered lower rates to secure the freight, but contracts having been made, the first party had the preference.

The St. Paul Press says: The marks on the bridge pier have shown full eight feet for several weeks past, and the height of the water has varied only a few inches since the opening of navigation.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Monday, says: The Tom Stevens left here yesterday for Benton. She receives the main portion of her cargo at Leavenworth. There is no other boat for Benton, but several will leave for the lower forts.

The river is declining steadily. The Missouri has fallen three feet at Omaha in two days.

Advices from Fort Benton are to the 13th. The steamer Cora arrived at Dauphin's Rapids, two hundred miles below Fort Benton, on the 8th, after unloading a portion of her freight and awaiting a rise. The Deer Lodge and Success reached the rapids on the 8th.

Advices from Dubuque state that boats passing there, north and south, are filled with passengers and loaded down with freight.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Monday, has the following: The bids for transporting 350 tons of army supples to Forts Rice, Sully and Stevenson were opened on Saturday, and were found to range from $50 to $69 per ton, The bid of J. W. Jennings was $2,50 per 100 lbs all round; Rufus Ford $3,45 to Fort Stevenson, $2,50 to Fort Rice, and $2 to Sully; H. K. Hazlett, $1,85 all round; Draffin, $49,60 per ton to Stevenson, and from Leavenworth to Sully and Rice, $1,25 per 100 lbs; M. S. Mepham, $2,50 from Leavenworth to Stevenson, $2 to Rice, and $1,50 from Leavenworth to Sully. The award may be announced to-day or to-morrow.

A Cairo telegram says: The Sam Brown sunk three barges of coal above here. One of the barges, bottom up, passed here today. The barges were sunk by Pilot White, who was drunk.

GOODIN'S COAL BANKS, May 16, 1868.—The Glasgow passed up at 5 p. m., and the Silver Lake No. 4 at p. m. on Thursday, and the Virginia at 10 p. m. yesterday. The Columbia passed down at 4 o'clock this morning. Since Thursday the river has risen eight inches here, and has fallen seven inches and falling at Omaha. The W. J. Lewis arrived at Omaha at 1 p. m. on Wednesday, and left on return trip at 10 a. m. Thursday. The Importer arrived there at 6 p. m. on Thursday, and H. M. Shreve at 7 a. m., and left for St. Louis a 9 a. m. yesterday.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Enquirer, of Tuesday: The G. A. Thompson, which has been in the hands of the Sheriff for two or three months past, has been purchased by Kennedy, McIntyre & Co., of Pittsburgh, at private sale; price, $8,500. The Thomson was built at St. Paul. Minnesota, in the fall of 1864, and cost $35,000. The boat will be taken to Pittsburgh to undergo repairs, after which she will be employed in carrying iron between Wheeling and St. Louis, in command of Capt. John Noss.

The St. Charles, in consequence of the heavy fog Saturday night did not arrive here until late yesterday morning, but departed for Pittsburgh last evening with a fair trip. She reshipped 20 tuns of Nashville freight on the Pine Grove.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 139¾.

* * *

MISSISSIPPI Republicans have placed in the field full State and Congressional tickets. General EGGLESTON, a distinguished Union officer leading the former, and both tickets made up almost entirely from natives of the State.

* * *

THE delegations at Chicago from the Gulf States represent the feelings of the Union men there as greatly depressed by the result of impeachment, but are still hopeful for the future of their States under their new Constitutions.

* * *

IT IS reported at Washington that JOHNSON'S acquittal with the eleventh article has cost the whisky ring three millions of dollars. They could well afford to pay it, and more, to keep him as their screen for nine months longer. It is worthy of note that the investigation into the job is already bearing its first fruits. Read the $25,000 Woolley exposure.

* * *

WE LEARN from the Erie Dispatch of Tuesday that the contest for the Presidential nomination at Chicago was narrowed down to the respective claims of GRANT, CHASE and WADE, with the probabilities strongly against the first and in favor of nominating CHASE, "provided impeachment will be carried." We are also informed that "the case is a desperate one for the Republicans." It is hardly necessary to add that the Dispatch "does not profess to be a genuine Republican newspaper."

* * *

DOUBTS are expressed as to the ability of Republican Senators to carry the bills for the admission of the new States by majorities sufficient to overide a Presidential veto. But it is intimated from Washington that the President will not veto the Arkansas bill, suffering it, when passed, to become a law without his legal assent, and also that the newly-formed political cabal will not oppose the admission of the Southern States; in fact, they prefer them admitted immediately. They say that Mr. Chase will carry a very large part of the colored vote.

* * *

SECRETARY STANTON will not leave the War Office until the Articles of Impeachment shall all have been disposed of, nor will the President be likely to attempt any further interference with him until the Senate, by his complete acquittal, shall give him its fullest permission. The Secretary, having been led into a position at variance with the claims of the President by the advice of Senators who have now basely deserted him, will feel himself at liberty, then, to retire. The steady and devoted courage with which he has been faithful among the faithless, have deservedly won for him the cordial admiration of the Republican party.

* * *

IT IS STATED that the Registration Law of the last session is to be submitted to the consideration of the Supreme Court before it goes into operation. There is certainly no objection to this, in any quarter, and if a proper case can be made up to bring the constitutionality of the act before that tribunal prior to the October election, it is the privilege of any persons interested to do so. The law has essential merits, and the Copperhead press unite in clamoring against its defects. But all fair-minded citizens, of any politics, will accept the measure as a long step forward toward the check of great abuses which have, on more than one occasion, rendered Pennsylvania politics a byword of reproach to the State and to the Democratic party, which is charged with the most flagrant latitude in such practices. Very naturally, the present complaints all come from that quarter.

THE sentiments of Gen Grant, upon two questions which of late, have awakened a lively interest within the hearts of the people have been very plainly declared. On one occasion, last week, he remarked to Senator TRUMBULL that, if the President was not convicted, he (GRANT) would not be able to live in Washington, so great would be the reaction of the rebel spirit. It is needless to add that the General was not then aware of the double treachery which that Senator was meditating against the Republican party and against himself as its candidate.

As to the Copperhead report that he had declined to be a candidate at Chicago, he said, last Friday, to one of his confidential officers "I have allowed the use of my name by the Republicans for many months and it would be unsoldierly and ungrateful for me to desert them now when things look gloomy." We are also at liberty to state that even the General has been surprised by the spontaneous and universal burst of indignant resolution with which Republicans every where have denounced the Senatorial treachery, and repelled the conspirators forever. He feels now that such a party not only survives the plot, but is able to hold the field and bury all the dead, and he will lead its columns again forward to a final victory.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Republicans met in quadrennial council at Chicago yesterday. All the States and territories were fully represented. An organization was quietly and promptly effected at the usual hour, the preliminary Committees were appointed, and a recess taken to five o'clock. The brief addresses of Gov. WARD, Chairman of the Executive Committee, and of Hon. CARL SCHURZ, who was appointed temporary Chairman of the Convention, recognized the living faith of Republicanism, and the vital importance of its mission. The dangers of the hour, from within and without, were fitly alluded to, and the delegates were reminded of the just expectations with which their countrymen wait upon their action.

THE PERMANENT organization of the Convention was effected by the selection of ex-Gov. J. R. HAWLEY, of Connecticut, as President, and a complement of Vice Presidents, among whom our fellow-citizen, Gen. J. K. MOORHEAD. On taking the chair, the President gave utterance to a speech full of patriotism, which received an enthusiastic reception. The delegates from the Southern States claiming admission were privileged to participate in the Convention, as were also the representatives claiming admission from the Territories and District of Columbia.

The admission of the Southern States materially alters the Vice Presidential canvass, and on the first ballot it will prove impossible to make choice. Our special sums up the canvass on the first vote as follows:

Wade	249	Hamlin	35
Fenton	121	Wilson	78
Curtin	42	Colfax	89
Sprague	8	Scattering	18

On the second ballot WADE will probably make it, as he will gather strength from all the States, being the second choice of most of the delegates. It is charged that the corrupt set of politicians known as the Albany (N. Y.) lobby have been senatorizing the Southern delegates, buying their votes for FENTON. This shameful conduct will only injure their favorite's chances after the first ballot.

The Pennsylvania delegation was in session all last night. The resolution previously adopted providing for unity was rescinded and the delegates will be privileged to vote as they may individually prefer. It is highly probable that CURTIN will receive the full complimentary vote of the State, as a compromise on first ballot, after which Wade will receive a solid vote. Our State will have fifty-nine delegates in Convention but will only be privileged to cast fifty-two votes.

GRANT will be nominated by acclamation. The platform will view the bond question in a light adverse to the seductive policy of repudiation; will urge a speedy return to specie basis, heartily endorse the Congressional plan of reconstruction and expressly rebuke those in high places who have destroyed the confidence of their loyal constituents, but will not read the recreants out of the party.

The Convention will probably conclude its labors to-day. Thus far the proceedings have been marked with harmony and good feeling, giving full evidence that the people have sent fitting representatives to perform a work involving the destiny free government and free institutions. The name of our great political organization, as prescribed by the proper committee, will henceforward be the NATIONAL UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY.

THE ASTEROIDS.

We receive the intelligence of the discovery of another Asteroid at Marseilles, by Temple, making the ninety-seventh of these bodies. The century of these minor planets is now so nearly reached, that a brief recapitulation of the results in this field of Astronomical research may not be uninteresting.

The first Asteroid was found on the first day of the first year of the nineteenth century, by Piarri, at Palermo. Pallas, Juno, and Vesta shortly followed, and there the progress of discovery was stayed for nearly forty years.

In the end of 1845 Astræa was discovered by Hencke, who also found Hebe in 1847, and since then no year has elapsed without adding one to their number.

Of these ninety-seven planets fifteen have been discovered in the United States. Of the remainder France has twenty-nine, Germany twenty-three, England fifteen, Italy eleven, India two, Denmark one, and Ireland one.

Two have been found since the commencement of the present year, both in France.

There is great emulation among observers in this branch of discovery, and the surprising results reached are due less to the ease of the research (which is abundantly tedious and difficult) than to the number and zeal of those engaged in observation. The amount of labor bestowed on the computation of the orbits of these distant and invisible bodies is immense, and the gathered results are published yearly in a volume, under the charge of the Director of the Royal Observatory at Berlin.

It is a curious reflection that such a body of men can exist as that of those who are associated by this common pursuit, in a little community, scattered from Michigan to India, yet united; known to each other, passing their lives in laborious observation, or computation still more laborious, wholly unknown often to the public, getting no recognition from it for their toil, but not asking or wishing any, provided they gain the impartial and silent suffrage of this little public of their own, whose good opinion is their fame and which has no other reward to bestow for the labor of a life devoted to the common science.

The Evening Chronicle of yesterday made the following statement:

We are informed, on good authority, that a project is on foot which, if carried to a successful conclusion, will result in one of the most stupendous railroad combinations in the country. This is nothing less than the consolidation of the Pennsylvania Central, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and the Panhandle Railroads. The prospect now is that the consolidation will be effected and that speedily. We understand that General Cass and Col. T. A. Scott are now attending a conference in New York, having this enterprise for its subject.

The Republican Convention.

Johnson, ordered my arrest and imprisonment. After my release your courts were open and I was left free to act. I felt then that the time had come when I should make my choice between this land and this Government and some other land with some other Government. I still love my own native land the best. [Cheers, cries of "good," "go on."] And with your construction of the Constitution, established by the sword, I still prefer this Government of the United States to any other organized Government. [Cheers.] The natural inquiry, then, was, what is my interest and what is my duty? I believed it was to my interest and my duty to remain in this Government. If I remained here, I must seek amnesty of the Government for the past and I must ask its protection for the future. If it yielded me that, I was in honor bound to return to my allegiance and make a good citizen if I could. [Cheers of "good," "good," and cheers.] Hence I have advocated every measure from that time till this for reconstruction. [Applause.] When the President of the United States proposed his plan, I advised our people to accept it, because we had fallen and we had no other power to negotiate with but him. He did not call Congress together. When Congress, which had the legitimate control of this question, [Cheers and prolonged applause.] proposed the Constitutional amendment to the Southern States, I advised such friends as sought my opinion on the question that it was better to accept it; but the feeling was so overwhelming against it that no voice could sustain it. Then what was the Constitutional Amendment? There was but one issue in it, and that was the suffrage question, and that Congress left with the States to settle for themselves. If we voted the black race we might count them in our representation. If we refused to vote them we could not count them. That was right. [Cheers and great applause, and cries of "right," "right."] With reference to the Federal debt there was no question. There was but one important question, and that was the provision that disqualified me and others with me from holding office. That was no living issue. I and others like me will soon pass from the stage, and if we did not, there are other and better men to take our places. Therefore, in my judgment, we acted very injudiciously. What followed the supplemental reconstruction acts? I advised, on the passage of the first of these, that we should accept it. At that time it would have been easy for me. True, without vanity I may say I had some popularity in my State, and had four times been elected its Executive, and I might have retained and courted popularity; but duty dictated a different course. I have followed it and have received the hearty denunciations of my people, or a large proportion of them, for having done so. I have been denounced as an enemy of my rhce and traitor to the cause which has wrought so much. I do not think so. I think my course more honorable than that of the man who was a rebel and sought the same amnesty that a State receives and the same protection from the Government that I receive, and then stays in its bosom prepared to sting it when opportunity offers. ("Good," "Good," and applause.) When I fought, I fought you openly and boldly; when I surrendered, I surrendered in good faith; and when I took the oath, I took it with a purpose religiously to observe it. By my theory, and I had been taught that it was the true one, my primary allegiance was to the State. When I had formerly taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, I understood it to bind me only while my State remained in the Union; but if she withdrew, which I believed she had a right to do for just cause, according to the necessity of the case, of which she must be the judge, I did not feel that I had violated that oath when I went with my State. But the oath to which the President of the United States bound me was very different. I was sworn now to support not only the Constitution, but the Union of the States. [Applause.] When I did that, I abandoned the doctrine of secession, for I cannot support the Union of the States and encourage secession from the Union. [Cheers.] The Virginia and Kentucky resolutions that included that doctrine, as I understood them, had always been the platform upon which the Democracy had stood. But when that platform was knocked from under my party, I had nothing left to take hold on. As I understood the doctrines of the Democracy, they were State sovereignty and right of secession. The sword has established a different doctrine, and hence it is that I am no longer bound by allegiance to the Democratic party. The Hamiltonian and Websterian construction of the Constitution has been established by the sword. I have acquiesced in that, and I find the Republican party standing on the platform to-day that has been abandoned by the Democratic party. That naturally lead me into the Repubiican party. (Cheers) I know this is a very unpopular doctrine in the South, but I believe it is the true doctrine. But let me tell you, Mr. President and gentlemen, that there are many white men in the South; there are large numbers of original Democrats; there are large numbers of original secessionists in the south who to-day stand firmly by the Republican party, and will support the great Captain of the age, Gen. Grant. [Great applause.] Our Democratic friends there have opposed negro suffrage, and denounced it as an outrage upon manhood and upon society, and yet, in the late elections there, the negro who voted the Democratic ticket was really a very respectable fellow, (laughter,) and the white man who voted the Republican ticket was a scallawag and a traitor. (Cheers and laughter.) They tell us there you establish negro supremacy in the South. Not so, not so. While we grant to colored people all their rights, civil and political, we do not expect them to be our masters. Much as you have seen in the papers on this subject, it is not so. In the State of Georgia, for instance, where those who are included within the Constitutional amendment, and who will be voters, although they have no right to hold office under our Constitution, come to the ballot box, there are twenty thousand majority of white men. There we have the advantage in education and experience. We claim that we have superiority of race. Tell me not, then, that the black people of Georgia can rule when they are 20,000 in the minority, and we have all these advantages. This is said with a view of prejudicing the Republican party north and south. It is not true in other States, even where the blacks are in the majority. If our white race act properly in this matter, there will be no difficulty.

Just in conclusion let me say, while we have had a hard fight to make in Georgia, if you will give us the fruits of the victory we have lately won in a desperate fight, we expect to carry Georgia for General Grant. (Great applause.) We have elected our Governor, we have adopted our Constitution, and elected a large majority of both branches of the General Assembly, yet our government is not inaugurated, and our Legislature is not called together. We desire that the Stevens' bill, that passed the House of Representatives the other day, be slightly amended in the Senate and then passed. The amendment that we desire is one to allow Gov. Bullock to convene the Legislature on ten days' notice. Do that, and they will adopt the Constitutional amendment. Then let them elect Senators and receive us into Congress, and give us the control of the State Government and its patronage, which we fought for and won and must have, if we succeed in this contest. [Great Applause.]

REPORT ON CREDENTIALS.

Gen. Lee, of Louisiana, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, reported the names of several delegates from several States. In regard to Pennsylvania, he said there appeared fifty-nine delegates, whereas that State was entitled to only fifty-two votes. The Committee recommended that the fifty-nine delegates be admitted to seats upon the floor of the Convention, and that they be authorized to cast the fifty-two votes to which the State is entitled, such being the wish of the Pennsylvania delegation.

The Committee recommended allowing each of the delegations from the several Territories the right to seats upon the floor and the privilege of casting each two votes. The same was accorded to the District of Columbia.

From Maryland the Committee recommended the admission of the Cresswell delegation, but they accorded seats on the floor to the contestants without the right to vote.

From California they recommend the admission of the regular delegates headed by Coey and Stevens.

In response to a query by Mr. Warner, of Pennsylvania, the Chairman of the Committee said the delegates from the unreconstructed States are included in this report as entitled to seats and votes. (Applause.) The committee considered the action of the Convention this morning effectually settled that question.

Mr. Evans, of Colorado, announced that Colorado was allowed her full vote as decided by the Convention this morning.

The report was then adopted.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

Mr. Barker, N. Y., from the Committee on Order of Business, reported the following rules:

First—Upon all subjects before the Convention, the States shall be called in alphabetical order.

Second—Four votes shall be cast by the delegates at large of each State, and each Congressional District shall be entitled to two votes. The vote of each delegation shall be reported by its Chairman.

Third—The report of the Committee on Credentials shall be disposed of before the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions is acted upon, and the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions shall be disposed of before the Convention proceeds to the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President.

Fourth—In making the nominations for President and Vice President in no case shall the calling of the roll be dispensed with. If it shall appear that any candidate has received a majority of the votes cast, the President of the Convention shall announce the question to be "Shall the nomination of the candidate be made unanimous;" but if no candidate shall have received a majority of the votes, the Chair shall direct the vote to be again taken, which shall be repeated until some candidate shall have received a majority of the votes cast.

Fifth—When a majority of the delegations from any two States shall demand a vote be recorded, the same shall be taken by States, the Secretary calling the roll of the States in the order heretofore stated.

Sixth—In the record of the vote by the States the vote of each State shall be announced by the Chairman, and in case the vote of any State shall be divided, the Chairman shall announce the number of votes cast for any candidate or against any proposition.

Seventh—When the previous question shall be demanded by a majority of the delegation of any State, and the demand is seconded by two or more States, and the call sustained by the majority of the Convention, the question shall be proceeded with and disposed of according to the rules of the House of Representatives in similar cases.

Eighth—No member shall speak more than once upon the same question, nor longer than five minutes, without the unanimous consent of the Convention, except that delegates presenting the name of a candidate shall be allowed ten minutes to present the name of such candidate.

Ninth—The rules of the House of Representatives shall continue to be the rules of this Convention, so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with the foregoing rules.

Tenth—A National Union Executive Committee shall be appointed, to consist of one member from each State, Territory and District represented in this Convention. The roll shall be called and the delegation from each State, Territory and District shall name through their chairman a person to act as a member of such committee.

Mr. Van Zandt, of Rhode Island—Mr. President, I understand from a number of the Committee on Resolutions, that it will be impossible for them to report before tomorrow afternoon probably, and that will necessarily defer the nomination for President. I am led to the opinion, from what I have seen this afternoon, that the Convention is somewhat impatient to proceed to that nomination. I therefore hope that the rules may be so far modified as to strike out that portion of them which provides that the report of the Committee on Resolutions shall be disposed of before the Convention proceeds to the nomination of candidates. [Cheers of "no," "no."] If the Convention desire to amend my motion, of course that is in order. I will confine it, however, sir, to the Presidency.

Mr. Thompson, of Indiana—I fear the Convention may be led to act under a misapprehension. I think I am authorized to say, as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, that you may reasonably expect a report from us very early to-morrow morning. There is no reason why we should be engaged till to-morrow afternoon. It is right, therefore, and proper, that you should understand how we stand before we vote on that proposition.

Mr. Bartholomew, Pa.—I move to amend the motion of the gentleman from Rhode Island by moving that this Convention do now proceed to the nomination of a candidate for President and Vice President of the United States. [Cries of "no," "no."]

Mr. Coles, North Carolina—I move to lay the motion and the amendment on the table. He withdrew this on learning from the Chair that this would table the eniire report of the Committee.

Mr. Van Zandt's amendment was then rejected.

The question recurred on the adoption of the report.

THE PARTY NAME.

Mr. Van Zandt moved to strike out the words "The National Union Party," and substitute in their stead "National Republican Party." [Cries of "good."] He said we fought under that old flag for many years. Our brothers, our sons and our fathers have died under it; we have achieved victory under it; we elected Abraham Lincoln under it, and we buried him under it, and I hope, sir, that we will not call this a "National Union Party." That means nothing at all. The Union is entire, and our's is a "National Republican Party." I trust the Convention will allow me, [applause.] although I represent one of the smallest States in the Union, and one with a very limited number of electoral votes, to propose this to me very important and desirable amendment. One, sir, in which I believe all the New England States will concur heart and soul, and one which I sincerely hope the great and almost boundless West and South will join.

The President—In the call for this Convention the title is "National Union Republican Party."

Mr. Logan, of Illinois, suggested that the name be the "National Union Republican Party."

Mr. Van Zandt—Mr. Chairman: I will accept any amendment the gentleman offers, even if he should want to change my name. [Applause and laughter.]

Mr. Van Zandt's amendment, as thus modified, was carried and the report adopted.

It was moved that when the Convention adjourn it adjourn to this place to-morrow at ten o'clock.

The President announced that copies of a campaign song had been left on the stage for distribution among the delegates.

Cries of "song," "song;" but the President announced that those who proposed to sing preferred not to do so until after the nominations were made.

Thereupon the Convention adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1868.

IMPEACHMENT WITNESSES EXAMINED.

The Impeachment Managers examined several witnesses, among them Hon. Edmund Cooper, of Tennessee.

The Impeachment Managers are assiduous in their labors, not only questioning witnesses who may throw light on their investigation, but examining telegrams, sixty or eighty of which have been furnished them on demand by the several telegraph offices.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

Specials of Tuesday state: The Impeachment Managers were in session this morning, and had a number of witnesses in attendance, among whom was Ed. Cooper, formerly the President's private Secretary, and Acting Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and J. C. Dunleavy, of Cincinnati. The investigation of the disposition made of Wooley's tweuty-five thousand dollars developed the fact that Wooley had sent $16,000 to Peter Swaub, of Cincinnati. Further questioning, however, made it appear that this was not the $25,000 in question, but other funds, and that part of the $25,000 was sent to one Shooks, in New York. It is said all these persons belong to what is known as the "Whisky Ring." The same line of investigation was followed up to-day. Thad Stevens is better, and was in attendance at the session of the Committee. Among the witnesses summoned by the managers today, was Montgomery Blair.

The N. Y. Tribune's dispatch states that Mr. J. C. Dunlavy, of Dayton, Ohio, yesterday testified before the Managers that he vouched for Wooley at the bank, and that he (Dunlavy) had been sent by Wooley to Judge Blackman, of Ohio, offering him $25,000 if he (Blackman) would use his influence to defeat the conviction of the President, which Blackman declined. Wooley testified to spending money in the interest of his client in giving dinners to parties, at which Evarts, Groesbeck and S. S. Cox were present. He accounted for $9,000 out of the $25,000, but declined answering as to the remainder. On being placed in custody he stated that he had sent money to Sheridan Shook, in New York, which was a contradiction of his former statement, that he had sent it to Peter Schwaub of Cincinnati. It is stated that a dispatch was received from Mr. Shook stating that Wooley's story is a sheer fabrication.

Senator Henderson has failed to meet the committee investigating the case of the Missouri delegation.

Senator Ross has endeavored to prove to Wade that by voting for acquittal he saved the Republican party, but Wade cast him off and told him never to speak to him again as a friend.

It reported to-day that thirty-six Senators will vote "guilty" on the second article, but I think the vote on all the articles on Monday will stand about thirty-four to twenty.

The corner stone of the new Masonic temple was laid here this afternoon. The various Masonic bodies joined the procession, and the occasion was marked by appropriate ceremonies and addresses.

* * *

—At Lancaster, N. Y., Tuesday night, at a hotel, Captain Beatty, formerly an officer in one of the Vermont regiments, became enraged at George Hillard, because the latter would not unlock the bar-room for him. He threatened to cut his heart out, and in pursuance of the threat went to his room, got a dirk, and coming unobserved by Hillard, plunged the weapon in his throat. A scuffle ensued, in the confusion of which the Captain succeeded in stabbing him again, the knife entering his side, and the point breaking off on one of his ribs. Then Hillard, with what strength remained, attacked Captain Beatty and beat him insensible, and almost to a jelly, after which he sank fainting to the floor. The situation of both is precarious, although the Captain is likely to recover.

It is said there is no doubt that Callicott, ex-Collector of New York, will be convicted of the charges against him, but that the President will pardon him.

BEWARE

Of that remorseless and insidious destroyer of the human race.

CONSUMPTION.

Check and conquer its advances, lest you fall the victim. When attacked with any of its preliminary symptoms, no matter how slight, be on your guard and promptly use the remedy ere too late.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is an old, well tried, certain and standard remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain or Oppression in the Chest or Lungs, and all Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs. Its sure and certain efficacy has been fully tested and endorsed for many years by numbers of well-known citizens in our midst, and their certificates are on record. Have you a cough which has gradually increased from a slight one to one of permanent standing? Lose no time, but procure a bottle of DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP, which will surely relieve you of the dangerous premonitory symptoms and effect a permanent cure. Do you spend miserable days and long sleepless nights of torture and pain from attacks of Asthma or Difficulty of Breathing? Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will act promptly, relieve you, and gradually restore you to your freedom of pain, and sound, pleasant sleep. Are your lungs sore and irritated, indicating inflammation? This is one of the most dangerous symptoms, and should be promptly removed. Dr. SARGENT'S Cough Syrup will heal the soreness, allay the inflammation, and restore the lungs to their prestine health and vigor. This Cough Syrup is pleasant and agreeable to take, while powerful and sure in its action. For sale by all Druggists in the country.

"BLESSINGS BRIGHTEN AS THEY TAKE THEIR FLIGHT."

Home, friends and all the enjoyments of life seem infinitely more dear to the sufferer from nervous debility when the probability is that, ere long, he must leave them forever. When the health has become impaired, and the strength is failing, then life looks more alluring. Stimulants are the only means of restoration in cases of nervous debility. The great difficulty has been to provide a stimulant possessing not only medicinal merit, but one affording permanent relief. If HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is resorted to in such cases, its beneficial effects will soon become apparent in the buoyancy of spirits and renewed strength of the hitherto dejected patient. Experience has proved this preparation to be "the Remedy of the age" for nervous debility, as well as all diseases arising from derangement of the stomach and liver.

Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS—an elixir that will instil new life into their veins; restore, in a measure, the ardor and energy of more youthful days; build up their shrunken forms and give health and vigor to their remaining years. Those who are in the least afflicted with Dyspepsia, Ague, Languor, Nausea, or any other troublesome and dangerous disease, arising from a disordered system, should not hesitate to avail themselves of the benefit derived from this great remedy.

The immense quantities of this invaluable tonic that are consumed, and which is steadily increasing, year by year, is sufficient in itself to disarm the most skeptical.

ANOTHER CURE OF DEAFNESS.

I lost my hearing during the last year. Part of the time I was totally deaf. In April of this year I was induced, from an advertisement, to make application to DR. KEYSER, 120 Penn street, Pittsburgh. After having tried various medicines from doctors, without any benefit, I have been under Dr. Keyser's treatment now for nearly two months, and am entirely restored to my hearing, so that I can hear a pin drop. JOHN SCANLAN,
Coal Bluffs, Washington Co., Pa.

ANOTHER CURE.

A man called to-day at Dr. Keyser's office to inform him of a great cure made by his LUNG CURE, or PULMONARY RESTORATIVE. ilst these cures are made with the Doctor's preparations, he desires it to be distinctly understood that most of his great cures are made in accordance with the established laws that govern the science of medicine, in which he has been engaged for the past twenty-five years. Last week he was also in receipt of a letter from a clergyman in the State of Ohio, detailing another most wonderful cure.

CITY OF PITTSBURGH WATER LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR

$250,000

OF THE

Bonds of the "Water Extension Loan,"

Will be received at the office of the CITY CONTROLLER, Fourth street.

These are COUPON BONDS, bearing interest at the rate of SEVEN PER CENT. per annum, payable semi-annually, at the office of the City Treasurer, and the Bonds are to be paid off in twenty-five years from April 1, 1868.

By Act of Assembly the Revenue of the Water Works is pledged for the payment of the Bonds and Coupons, and the latter are by law made receivable for Water Rents, and the Act authorizing the Loan creates a SINKING FUND of not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have been issued in pursuance of said Act. The Councils are bound to appropriate annually a sufficient sum for interest, and not less than two per cent. of all bonds which may have issued to go into the Sinking Fund.

The proceeds of these Bonds can only be used for the extension and improvement of the City Water Works, which will increase the revenue, while at present it is far greater than is required to insure the payment of interest and retirement of the Bonds.

The Bonds are EXEMPT FROM STATE, COUNTY and CITY TAX, which, together with all the foregoing advantages, make the Bonds the most desirable security offered to the public.

Bids under par will not be considered.

By order of Finance Committee.

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, stock cattle, hogs and poultry, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Connellsville railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business For particulars enquire of Fifth Street Sidewalk Extension.

IRON CURB AND SIDEWALK.

We desire to call the attention of parties about to widen their sidewalks, according to ordinance, to our Patent Iron Curb and Pavement. The same will be laid in front of the Opera House this week and will speak for itself. The following is an extract from a letter of the City Engineer and Regulator: "I consider it superior to stone, and if laid in Fifth street, will add greatly to its beauty, and I would recommend it to property owners.

"H. J. MOORE, City Engineer."

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, May 20, 1868.

The gold market was firm to-day, and had touched 139⅞, but became weaker, and sold down to 139⅝ to 139¾. The continued heavy shipments of specie to Europe have reduced the amount floating on the market to a mere trifle, and so soon as the Treasury disbursements and sales are below the amounts required for shipment than a demand is made on the stock held for speculation, and, consequently, a rise of the premium is sure to follow.

Government securities were very firm, and had advanced ¼ per cent. on last night's prices, but at the advance, there were some large sales to realize, and a reaction of about ⅛ per cent. took place. The old issues, available in Europe, and Ten Forties are sought after in preference to the new issues. It is quite likely that 1864 bonds will be regularly quoted in Europe, and to that end foreign bankers have been free buyers of them for some time; the small amount, about fifty millions of coupon bonds and a like amount of registered, comprises the whole issue, will make them better available for speculation, and a lively traffic may be carried on in them. Governments have now reached such a high price that the investment demand for them must be confined to the money centres of the country, where money can be had on call.

In stocks the market is remarkably quiet for this season of the year, where prices generally advanced before the regular patrons of Wall street go to the country.

Money is easy on call or first class securities, but long paper is not wanted, except accompanied by bond and mortgage.

In local securities but little is doing, except some inquiry that is made for Columbia and Triumph oil stock at 10½ and 75c, respectively.

Business is improving, and a better feeling pervades all classes, especially those who had been out of employment nearly all winter. With good crops, for which the prospects are good, a good fall business is likely to be done, and by larger exports of cotton, of which the total crop is now estimated at 2¼ million bales, our foreign balance against us may be materially reduced, and prices brought back to the old standard. The enormous emigration west will largely increase the products of the soil, and relieve the eastern towns of a population which they can well spare.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139¾; 1881 bonds, 114⅝; 1862 5-20s, 109⅝; 1864 do, 108⅝; 1865 do, 108⅞; Consols, 110⅛; 10-40s, 104⅛; 7-30s, 107¾.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 84¼; Fort Wayne, 107¾; North Western, common 66¼; North Western—preferred, 76¾; New York Central, 128⅞; Erie, 68¾; Old Southern, 86¾; Ohio & Mississippi, 29¼; Merchants Union Express, 28½; Western Union Telegraph, 37¾. Mining Shares—Corydon, 25; Quartz Hill, 95; Quicksilver, 29¼.

—The Seven Thirties now outstanding amount to about one hundred and sixty-three millions, and the Five Twenties are so much above par that there is no longer any danger whatever of that "Seven Thirty dead-lock" which has so long been the great danger of the financial situation. The compound notes were reduced last month by only about a million and a half. On the 15th of this month, however, twenty-two millions more will become due, and in their payment will be issued the remaining twenty-two millions of three per cent. certificates authorized 2d March, 1867. The twenty-two millions of maturing May compounds will carry about four and a half millions of accumulated interest, so that several millions of the compounds will have to be paid in cash. Those persons who wish to secure the certificates should therefore make early application, as it is reported that the Treasury is issuing the certificates in payment of both the face and the interest. Hence the holder of one million of compounds, if he applies in time, will receive about $1,200,000 of the new three per cents. A question has already been raised as to whether the fifty millions of these certificates should not be increased to seventy-five or one hundred millions.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 139⅝; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 114⅝; 5-20's, 1862, 109½; 5-20's, 1864, 108½; 5-20's, 1865, 108⅛; 10-40's, 103⅞; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 110¼; 5-20's, January and July, '67, 110¼; June 7-30's, 107⅞; July 7-30's, 107⅞; May Comp., 1865, 119-40.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, May 20, 1868.

There seems to be a slight improvement in the general markets, there being a perceptible increase in the volume of business, while so far as values are concerned, there are no important changes. The weather continues clear and pleasant, and very favorable for out-door operations, and all that could possibly be desired for the growing crops.

GROCERIES—Sugars are very firm and higher, which is owing mainly to the very favorable indications for a heavy crop of fruit. Coffee is quiet and rather dull though unchanged. In other articles there are no changes worthy of special notice, one way or the other. The following are the ruling quotations:

SUGARS—Cuba, 12½c for good grocery; 12¾ to 13c for prime; and 13½c for choice; Porto Rico—good, 13c; prime, 13½; choice, 13¾ to 14c; Clarified Cuba, 14 to 14½c. Refined—Standard Hard, 17¼c; A, 16⅝c; B, 16½c; Extra C, 16c; Sugar House, 11 to 12c.

COFFEE—Rio ranges all the way from 22 to 25½c for common to strictly prime. Java 37 to 38c.

SYRUPS—Lovering's $1; Silver Drips, $1; White Drips, $1,10; medium brands, 70 to 80c; common, 50 to 60c.

RICE—Rangoon, good, 10c; prime to choice, 11 to 11½c; Carolina, 12 to 12½c.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, 90 to $1; Cuba, 65 to 70c; Porto Rico, 70 to 75c.

SPICES—Cassia, 80 to 85c; Cloves, 50c; Pepper, 38c; Allspice, 35c; Nutmegs, $1,50.

STARCH—Madison, 8c; Silver Gloss, 12½c, and Corn Starch, 13½c.

FRUITS—Layer Rasins, $4,75 per box; Valentia, 20c per lb; Prunes, 17c; Currants, 14c for new.

BAR LEAD—12c; Shot, $3,50 per bag.

SOAPS—"Babbitt's," 12c; "Oakley's," 11½c; Rosin, 4½ to 6c; "Dobbin's," 15c.

CANDLES—Mould, 16c; Star, 23c.

CONCENTRATED LYE—$7,50 per case.

BI CARB SODA—$8,50 per 100.

FISH—White Fish, $8,00; Lake Herring, $4; Mackerel No. 1, $22; No. 2, $18,00; No. 3, $14,50; in half bbls, 50c more.

TOBACCO—Black 5s, 10s, ¼s and Louisville Navy, 72 to 75c; Wm. H. Grant's 10s and Navy, 80c; C. & D. Tobacco, 22c to 25c for best.

TEA—The market is firm and prices are higher for new crop. Choice Young Hyson, $1,75; fair, $1,50; common to good, $1 to $1,35; Oolong, 75c, 85c, 90c, $1, $1,25 and $1,35; good Porto Rico, $1 to $1,85, as to quality. Imperial, $1 to $1,85. Japan—Choice, $1,30; fair $1.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet, but as the supply is very light, prices are maintained; sales of prime Red Winter at $2,70, though some of the mills quote at $2,65. There seems to be rather more inquiry for Corn, and the market, in consequence is a shade firmer; sale of 1,600 bushels mixed Tennessee Corn at $1,05; 2 car loads of prime Yellow at $1,10, and smaller sales at $1,05 to $1,10, as to quality. Oats very firm and higher; sales on wharf at 83c, and 1 car load at 85c. Rye is still quoted at $1,95 to $2. No movement in Barley, and little or none in market.

HAY—The demand is rather better, and, prices compared with a week since, are higher; we can report sales of baled on wharf at $20 to $25, and wagon Hay at $24 to $28, and even $30.

BUTTER—Is commencing to arrive quite freely, and the market is dull and weak with a drooping tendency. We are cognizant of prime Roll having been sold to-day at 30c, though this, we suppose, is a little under the market.

EGGS—Unchanged at 20c.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is unchanged at 14½c for Shoulders; 16½c for Ribbed, and 18½c for Clear Sides; 19½c for Plain Sugar Cured Hams; and 20½ to 21c for Canvassed do. Lard, 19½c. Mess Pork, $29. Dried Beef, 22c for Plain, and 23c for Canvassed.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand and scarce but unchanged at $2,50 to $2,55. No demand whatever for Clover or Timothy Seeds.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows are in steady demand, and we can report regular sales at $1,50 per bushel.

APPLES—Green apples are scarce and firm but unchanged; regular sales at $6 to $7 per barrel, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Firm but unchanged; sales of Peaches at 12 to 14c; and Apples at 7 to 7½c.

LARD OIL—Unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $11 to $11,75 for Spring Wheat; $12 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is unchanged at $10 to $10,25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, May 20, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market continues very quiet and dull, and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. There was but a single sale and it was a small one, and as it was sold a little below the market, the price was withheld. Spot oil is still quoted at eleven cents, although there seems to be no buyers above 10½c, at which figure, it is said, some fifteen thousand barrels could have been disposed of. Notwithstanding the market is dull and weak, and the demand very much restricted, there is not much oil offering, and, as a general thing, holders are not disposed to make concessions. The arrivals continue light, notwithstanding it was expected that the receipts on the last freshet would be large, and it was also predicted that a larger amount of oil would be thrown upon the market than there was on any of the preceding freshets.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also very weak to-day, and early deliveries have still further declined. We can report two lots of 500 each, for the last half of May, buyer's option, at 29c; and 300 bbls for same delivery, at 25c, free on board cars here. This, compared with the early part of last week, shows a decline of 4 to 5c, when May sold at 33 to 34c. June is nominal at 29c and July at 29½c. The shipments east were again large yesterday, the Valley Road alone reporting over 3500 bbls in the aggregate. There are no new developments in regard to the expected "corner;" the excitement has pretty well subsided, since it has been discovered that nearly all, if not all, of our refiners will be able to come up to the scratch and deliver their oil promptly on time. This is as it should be.

CLIPPINGS.

IT is said that if the stringent regulations in the new tax bill can be made available, the tax on all whiskey now in bond will be surely collected. No mercy will be shown guilty revenue officers.

IN Philadelphia, in April, permits were given for the erection of 647 buildings, 554 of them dwellings, with one church, six factories and nineteen shops. Among the factories is one for the manufacture of silk.

ALL able bodied men under forty-five are required by the general militia law of this State to pay one dollar a year in lieu of service, except in time of war or invasion, the fines to form a brigade fund. Each man who drills in a volunteer company is entitled to twelve dollars a year.

THE best estimates make the wheat crop of California for the present year twenty millions of bushels, the barley crop ten millions of bushels, and the crop of oats ten and a-half millions of bushels. Some anxiety is expressed that there will be a deficient tonnage for the export of flour and grain.

THE new Steel Works, located at Baldwin, below Harrisburg, turned out their first work on Friday morning. Three iron rails, thirty-one feet long, were cast and turned out. and in the afternoon eight steel rails the same length, were also turned out. The steel rails have not been thoroughly tested, says the Guard, but from an examination they appear sound and perfect.

WADE HAMPTON foreshadowed the policy of the National Copperhead party in a speech made recently at Columbia, South Carolina, wherein he said, in talking of negro suffrage as a plank in the Copperhead platform: "Let the colored man be told God's truth—that if he expects to escape the fate of the Indian he should go with the Democratic or Conservative party."

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE has rendered himself odious to his old companions, the original anti-slavery men, and whenever mentioned at their anniversary, which has been held here, his name has been greeted with hisses and groans. He is believed to have conspired in advance with the renegade Senators to bring about an acquittal, in order to demoralized and overthrow the party, hoping to elevate himself on its ruins.—N. Y. Letter.

PENNSYLVANIA politics: Mr. Morrell's friends in the Huntingdon Congressional District urge his renomination. In the Lycoming District, Wm. H. Armstrong and Clinton Lloyd, of Williamsport, are candidates for the Republican Congressional nomination. The Harrisburg State Guard announces that Hon. George F. Miller will not be a candidate for re-election to Congress, and that Dauphin county ought to claim the nomination.

LORD BROUGHAM'S personal appearance was very singular and ungracious. He was a tall, thin man, with a pale, inexpressive face. The most remarkable feature was his nose, which has been described as a "marvel—protuberant, aggressive, inquiring and defiant, unlovely but intellectual." Punch once unmercifully caricatured it, which so exasperated his Lordship, that he introduced the subject into the House of Lords as a question of privilege.

THE Committee of Arrangement of the Pennsylvania Reserve Association are making active preparations for a great reception of the members from the different parts of the State on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Association in Pittsburgh on the 30th of May. A grand banquet will be given, and an oration delivered on the late General McCall. The commanders of the old Reserve Division, among whom are Generals Meade, Crawford, Ord, and others, are expected to be present.

THEY are going to put up in Toledo, Ohio, a number of "cheap buildings." The following is the proposal of an individual there who has land to sell:

He will sell on contract, requiring just enough down to bind the bargain. The purchaser may then go on, put up his building, and when completed he will take charge of the house, rent it, collect the rent and credit the amounts so collected on the payment of the lot, and when it is fully paid will give a good warranty deed.

THE report has crossed the ocean from Paris of the death there, from fever incident to child-birth, of Mrs. Edward H. Green, better known as Hetty H. Robinson, in connection with the disputed Howland will case. The story has no foundation in fact, no such intelligence having reached her family or friends in New Bedford or elsewhere. It was added in the Paris item that her child, should it reach the age of twenty-one, would inherit an accumulated fortune of $35,000,000, which would be about the truth.

APOLLIS FENN, keeper of the Hartford, Conn., jail, in a letter favoring an industrial school for girls, says that the expense of 217 women committed to that jail for three years past amounted to $6,396, besides proportional costs amounting to as much more, and $7,760 a year is a low estimate for their support while there. And all this without any benefit to the State, for ninety-nine women out of every hundred go away worse than they came, the young with the ineffaceable stigma of the convict upon them to make reformation impossible.

A NEW YORK correspondent of a Southern paper predicts a smash-up among the jobbers and importers of that city. He says:—"Heavy obligations will soon fall due—about the end of May, mostly—and the means to meet them will be hard to find. One of the few prosperous dealers on Broadway told me two days ago that Eastern merchants will not be able to pay more than twenty cents on the dollar. Western men can do better, and nearly all the goods sold to Southern men were sold for cash, so that the heaviest losses this season will have to be borne by houses which have been selling to the East."

A NEW GRATE FOR FURNACES.—In the ordinary form of furnace grate, the bars of iron are made stout enough to sustain the weight of the coal, even after being weakened by heating, and, as a consequence, much of the coal resting on the iron is not brought in contact with the air, and its gases are driven off unconsumed, causing the dense black smoke escaping from the chimney, when bituminous coal is burned. An arrangement has lately been patented in England, by which the air is admitted to all parts of the burning mass, and the smoke almost entirely consumed, with a great reduction in the amount of ashes.

THE laborers throughout the city of New York have resolved on a general strike. They want 25 cents per day in addition to the existing scale of prices This will materially interfere with the work now in progress, but as the extra pay demanded is small, it is probable the bosses will comply. The boss carpenters have agreed to give their journeymen the advance demanded. In regard to the bakers, there is no change to note in the situation. The cabinet makers are in session, receiving reports from the various shops, from which it appears that some of the bosses are giving the advance, while others hold out unconditionally; but others say they will be governed by what the majority of the employers may agree upon.

Democratic Candidates.

The Boston Post which is regarded as high Democratic authority, prints the following in its New York correspondence:

I must now say that I think Mr. Pendleton will not be nominated. His fitness for the office of President is conceded by every Democrat in the country, but his availability as a candidate is not. His war record would certainly operate against him in the campaign, and throw a large portion of the soldiers' vote over to the other side. His apparent determination to make the greenback question an issue would also work his injury; for although the mass of the people are substantially in accord with him in believing that the bonds should and can be paid in greenbacks, they are opposed to saddling this question on the Democratic party at the present time.

Mr. Pendleton's name will certainly come before the Convention; and be strongly urged. But General Hancock will also be there, and probably Horatio Seymour. I have reason to believe that Hancock will be supported by four-fifths of the Southern delegates. If nothing but principle was staked in this contest, the South would prefer either Seymour or Pendleton, but there is something else, and the leading minds of the South feel that Hancock is the safest man to nominate. I know this to be so, for I have lately traveled through a large portion of the South, and observed the feeling there. It is doubtful if Mr. Pendleton could carry any Western States except his own and Indiana. He would certainly be weak in the Middle and Eastern States. Hancock would be strong in all, and so would Seymour. It is probable that either of these two gentlemen—both popular, able and patriotic—will be selected as standard bearer for the Democracy.

Facts Connected with the Treachery of Senator Fowler.

Senator Fowler's case is effectually exposed by the following extract from the minutes of a meeting of the Union Congressional Committee held at Senator Morgan's on the evening of the 10th of January. In the course of his remarks at the meeting, Senator Fowler, of Tennessee, without warrant of the President, or by any allusion to Mr. Johnson by any of the speakers who had preceded him, introduced the question of impeachment and entered into an argument to demonstrate its necessity and to show the responsibility of Congress for the sufferings of Southern Union men and the murder of so many of them, which, he said, would be continued as long as we failed to impeach and remove him. He opened this topic by saying that some of the gentlemen present had differed with him in their estimate of Mr. Johnson and the judgment of his purpose, but that experience had probably satisfied them that he had been right. He said he had known him long and well, and, let the defects of his character be what they may, he was plausible and unrelenting in his purpose, and had extraordinary power for evil, that no efficient relief could be given to the Union men of the South till he should be impeached and removed, that he would be able as President to overthrow such governments as might be established, and that "so long as we should fail to do our duty and impeach and remove him from office, we would be responsible for the suffering and blood of the Union men of Tennessee, and the unreconstructed States." This extract, from the minutes, is signed by W. D. Kelley, and its correctness certified by seven other Congressmen, members of the committee, and the Secretary.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

The annual session was continued yesterday at Lafayette Hall. The officers elected were installed into their respective positions by the retiring Grand Master, Richard Watson. The Committee on Reception representing the Lodges in this portion of the jurisdiction, made their report, whereupon Bro. P. G., R. Biddle Roberts, as the representatives of the Lodges in Western Pennylvania, addressed the Grand Lodge on behalf of the Fraternity in the Western portion of the State, bidding them welcome to our city, and congratulating them on this their first session held west of the Alleghenies. We regret that we are unable to give a report of Bro. Roberts' remarks at length at present, but we may say that it was one of the happiest of the kind that we have heard for years. Grand Master Watson responded thereto in a feeling and impressive manner. At the session yesterday, beside the officers of the Grand Lodge, there were present Past Grand Sire James B. Nicholson, P. G. Masters John W. Stokes, E. Wildman, P. Fritz, R. A. Lamberton and J. Alex. Simpson. A number of representatives and new members of the Grand Lodge were admitted. Charters for new subordinate Lodges, to be located at Mechanicsville, Venango county; Emlenton, Venango county; Dempseytown, Venango county; Centreville, Washington county; Lyon's Station, Berks county, and at Hartford, Susquehanna county, were granted. Among the reports read and accepted were included those from the retiring Grand Master, Committee on the State of the Order and the Committee of Superintendence, all of which were listened to with marked attention, and appear to have given much gratification.

The attendance yesterday was even much larger than on the previous day, and the deliberations of the large body was characterized for its harmony and good will displayed in the charitable and beneficial work in which the members of the Order are engaged. The session will continue to-day, being the third day of its sitting, and will have considerable business of importance to transact, which may probably prolong the session until Friday. The new Grand Master made the following appointments, which were confirmed:

Grand Marshal—Thomas A. Rowley, of No. 475; Grand Conductor—John S. Heiss, of No. 28; Grand Guardian—C. N. Hickok, of No. 202; Grand Herald—Wm. H. Jackson, of No. 114.

Committee on Finance—John J. Schell, of No. 110; E. D. Rowand, of No. 296; A. Taylor, of No. 144; F. M. Rea, of No. 89; Wm. C. Probasco, of No. 375.

Committee on Printing—Charles K. Neisser, of No. 201; Angus Cameron, of No. 319; W. G. P. Brinkloe, of No. 19; E. G. Millett, of No. 155; William Caldwell, of No. 272.

Committee on Mileage—John Brown, of No. 114; James Bown, of No. 431; Alfred Slack, of 241.

Committee on Credentials—Robert Mackey, of No. 55; Felix H. Levy, of No. 190; G. C. Shidel, of No. 475.

Committee on Appeals—John W. Stokes, of No. 28; Wm. Morslander, of No. 3; Benj. Boucher, No. 11; Maurice Finn, of No. 52; Samuel D. Sidebotham, of No. 63; H. W. Bailey, of No. 146.

Committee of Superintendence—John G. Moxey, of No. 4; C. R. Vanhorn, of No. 52; Geo. Kettering, of No. 375; Richard Gilbert of No. 26; James Barrows, of No. 10.

While the Grand Lodge was in session yesterday the following dispatch was received:

"The Grand Lodge of Connecticut, now in session, with Grand Sire Saunders, D. G. Sire Farnsworth, P. G. Master Stuart, Grand Master Smith and Grand Secretary Driscoll, of Rhode Island, as guests, presents its kind regards to the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, wishing them harmony and prosperity.

LUCIUS A. THOMAS, G. S."

This was responded to by order of the Grand Lodge in the following language:

To the G. L. of Connecticut I. O. O. F.,
Lucius A. Thomas, G. Secretary:

"The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvanta, by unanimous resolution returns her fraternal greetings to the Grand Lodge of Connecticut and her distinguished guests. May God bless you, and cause His face to shine upon you and the Brotherhood everywhere.

WM. CURTIS, G. S."

Among other business transacted yesterday was the passage of a resolution to hold the next annual session at Harrisburg, providing permission will be given by the Grand Lodge of the United States, which will hold its annual session in Baltimore in September next. This evening a complimentary reception to the representatives and members of the Grand Lodge will be given at the Skating Rink, in Allegheny City, for which preparations have been made upon an extended scale.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church—Opening Sermon.

The General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church met last evening in the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, (Dr. John Douglas,) at half-past seven o'clock. Rev. W. S. Bratton, the retiring Moderator, ascended the pulpit, accompanied by Rev. Drs. S. W. Crawford and J. N. McLeod. The congregation united in singing the one hundredth Psalm, commencing

"All people that on earth do dwell."

Rev. John N. McLeod, D. D., of New York, then lead in prayer, after which the assembly sang a part of the 45th Psalm, from the tenth verse:

"O daughter, take good heed,
Incline and give good ear."

Rev. Mr. Bratton then announced his text. Heb. 10:23.—"Let us hold fast the profession of one faith without wavering, for He is faithful that promised."

After a short introduction, Mr. Bratton said he would consider his text under the following heads;

1. Some things which should be steadfast.

2. The manner in which this steadfastness is to be maintained.

3. The encouragement given to stimulate to hold fast.

The Church and the Christian has a special duty to perform in maintaining the integrity of Divine truth—the inspiration of the scriptures and the inspiration, too, of a faithful transaction. The church must maintain the integrity of Divine worship. In regard to the manner of maintaining steadfastness, Mr. Bratton said it was to be done by rightly understanding the truth; by the exercise of a living faith; by unitedly sustaining the truth—keeping the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.

At the conclusion of the sermon the congregation sang the chaunt commencing "The earth is the Lord's."

The singing was most excellent and commanded universal approbation.

The Moderator then opened the Synod in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, after which the court adjourned to meet this morning at nine o'clock, Rev. Dr. McMasters concluding by prayer.

Serious Accident.—Patrick Connolly, a coal miner, employed at the Spring Hill coal mines, on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, was seriously injured Tuesday evening while at work in the mines. He was digging in one of the pits when a heavy mass of slate fell upon him, injuring him seriously and perhaps fatally. He was rescued from his perilous position soon after the accident occurred and removed to his home.

Odd Fellows at the Rink call at J. Ryland's, No. 36 Market street, and get a meal that would do your heart good. Come one, come all. Choicest cigars, wines and liquors at the bar. Free lunch from 6 a. m to 12 p. m. J. Ryland, Proprietor.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

In the case of the United States vs. the distillery and twenty-five gallons of whiskey et alia, owned by Jacob Snyder, the jury found the following verdict: "That the defendant, Jacob Snyder, is not guilty upon the indictments, and they find for the respondent and against the United States."

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. Daniel Carnes. The defendant was indicted for conspiring with Henry Landis, for a valuable consideration, to withhold information against Landis in a case pending in 1867. District Attorney Carnahan appeared for the prosecution, and George F. Baer, Esq., of Reading, for the defense. On trial.

In the bankruptcy branch, petitions for final discharge were filed by D. W. Hager and W. J. Tinker, of Milford, Susquehanna county; James Q. Annis, of Crawford county; Samuel F. Andrews, of Erie county; Wm. J. Kingsland, of Crawford county; and R. M. Wilson, of New Bethlehem, Clarion county. The usual orders were made.

O. C. McClung filed a petition for adjudication in bankruptcy for himself and for J. H. Miller and Henry R. Hagey, partners as J. H. Miller & Co. An order to show cause was made and issued together with copies of the petition to be served on the co-partners not joining in the same, and made returnable on the 25th inst.

A petition was also filed by the President of the Tradesman National Bank against C. B. Ebbart, of New Castle. Rule to show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted was made and issued, returnable on the 28th inst.

A petition was also filed by William K. Welter, of Corry, Erie county.

Judge M'Candless appointed S. W. Oatman, Esq., of Ebensburg, Cambria county, as United States Commissioner.

Conservative Meeting.

A meeting of the so-called Conservative element was held at the St. Charles Hotel last evening for the purpose of ratifying the action of the Senators who cast their votes against impeachment.

Smith & Teorges' excellent band was employed and played through the streets for a considerable time in order to collect a sufficient number of persons together to entitle the assemblage to be called a meeting. At eight o'clock fully one hundred persons had assembled in front of the Hotel, when the meeting was called to order by G. R. Butterfield, Esq., on whose motion Col. G. A. Loyd was called to the chair.

Upon taking the chair Mr. Loyd thanked the meeting for the honor conferred on him in a brief address, after which he read the following list of officers:

Vice Presidents—Dr. George H. Keyser, J. G. Buffum, Wm. M. Crague, Ed. Eichenlaub, S. P. Ross, H. Ward, Capt. James Irwin, Joseph Lofink, Wm. Stimple, Col. D. Davidson, Fayette; Wm. Smith, Col. Henry Kettering, Wm. Harrison, Robert H. Roach, Samuel McKee, John Anday, Joseph O'Brien, Frank P. Robinson, Col. Wm. Sirwell, E. Buffington, Esq., James Nevin, Ferdinand V. Voltz, Henry A. Weaver, A. H. Coffroth, D. H. Markle, Hon. James Blackmore, Col. John P. Linton, John Murray, and Joseph Finch.

Secretaries—D. H. Williams, Capt. Frank Hutchison, Capt. James Stewart, D. H. Lambert, W. H. Scott, A. Stewart and Col. J. P. Langdon.

The Chairman then introduced Gov. Wm. Johson, who said:

The Constitution of the Government in his judgment, was in danger and the liberties of the citizens placed in jeopardy. Heretofore in the heat of partizan strife the law has often been disregarded, but never to such an extent and under such circumstances as in the present instance. Congress had violated the law and trampled under foot the Constitution of the United States, passed unconstitutional laws and dared to impeach the President for not enforcing them.

The charges against the President were brought before the highest Court in the Government and submitted to the highest jury which could be impannelled, and the result was a verdict of acquittal. Efforts had been made to induce a number of the jurors to disregard their oaths, but notwithstanding those almost irresistible efforts, the President was triumphant.

He referred to the records of the Republican Senators who voted for acquittal, and claimed that they were the peers of their accusers.

On motion of Jonas R. Butterfield, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on Resolutions: Capt. J. H. Stewart, J. P. Langdon and Geo. W. Leonard.

The Committee reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the happiness and safety of the American people depend upon faithful and honest obedience to the Constitution; that without this charter of Liberty, the rights of all citizens must rest upon the passions and prejudices of the passing moment. That in all cases and under all circumstances it is the duty of every patriot to protect, guard and defend the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That whilst we regard the recent attempt to remove from office the President of the United States by party malignity and party influences, we rejoice that the attempt has been made, with the results attending it, inasmuch as the same exhibits the power and force of truth and patriotism, and devotion to Constitutional law over and above the dictations of party and selfish influences.

Resolved, That the Senators voting to prevent the great wrong intended to be inflicted upon the Constitution and the rights of the Executive, merit and have our most cordial thanks and approbation.

Resolved, That the Senators voting to condemn the President without proof of law, at the dictation of partizan feelings, have acted without due regard to the preservation of the great and important interests entrusted to them; that we shall in future mark them as traitors to constitutional liberty, and as the purchased agents of blind fanaticism, unrestrained party passion, and as false jurors to the best interests of the American people.

The meeting then adjourned.

Leg Broken.

John Carson, a boy about sixteen years of age, had his leg broken on Tuesday evening about five o'clock by being run over by carriage. A train on the Fort Wayne Railroad, which had stopped at the crossing on Penn street, blockaded the street for a considerable time, while a number of wagons and carriages were waiting on either side of the train. When it moved away, the driver of each vehicle tried to get ahead of the other, and Carson, in attempting to run across the street, was struck by the carriage and knocked down. The wheels of the vehicle passed over his right leg, breaking it, as stated, below the knee. He was taken to his residence on Pike street, when the fracture was reduced and he is in a fair way to recover.

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday on the body of Robert Hart which was found in the Monongahela river Tuesday evening, who it appears was drowned Saturday evening near the Birmingham bridge. He was employed as teamster by Mr. Robert Campbell, proprietor of the coke ovens, and on Saturday evening took his mules to the river to water them. The one he rode became refractory and threw him into the deep water. He became entangled in the harness and was drowned. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning. The deceased was about seventeen years of age, and came to this city from Chambersburg where his mother resides.

An Interesting Temperance Occasion.

If we were asked to point out the agency in this community which has done more for the great cause of temperonce than either the press or the pulpit, we should unhesitatingly select the Pittsburgh Division No. 42, I. O. of Sons of Temperance. Starting under the guidance and protection of a few life-long total abstinence men, tenderly watched and guarded in its infancy, made the receptacle of the virtuous and good as well as those who were slaves to the passion of strong drink, recognizing the grandeur of the work, the sublimity of its mission, the secret power of the overwhelming enemy against which it had to contend, the Lodge has steadily gained strength and members till to-day its roll embraces the names of hundreds of our leading ladies and gentlemen. The meetings, socials and reunions, which have from time to time marked its existence, have ever been the most enjoyable and pleasant affairs of the season, while the holy redeeming influence exercised by the good example of its members has caused rejoicing around the now happy firesides of many, many families. The system on which managed, having in view only the mutual improvement and moral culture of members, has been highly conducive to the objects for which the organization was established. Every right thinking person, every heart which has been pained the slightest through the giving away of near and dear friends to the passion for drink, should rejoice in the existence and prosperity of such associations.

To-night the elegent Mozart Hall, so long occupied by Division 42, will be dedicated with all due ceremony, and the public are invited to attend. The cards of admission can be procured from the members at the door. We trust the friends of temperance will turn out in full force and by their presence encourage the good work.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed of record before H. Snively, Esq., Recorder, May 19th, 1868:

H. J. Lance's Scouring Establishment.

The season for scouring, coloring and cleaning coats, vests, pants and general light clothing, together with gloves, kid slippers, ladies' shawls, ribbons, dress goods, etc., is at hand, and we feel that we are doing our readers a favor by recommending the old and reliable first-class dyeing and scouring establishment of H. J. Lance, Nos. 135 Third street and No. 3 St. Clair street. The fame in this line of business enjoyed by Mr. Lance extends throughout our own and contiguous States. He gives personal supervision to all work entrusted to his care and guarantees the fullest satisfaction. His establishment is the largest and most complete in this section of the State, and all the machinery and mechanical appliances necessary for the work are liberally introduced. The prices are very reasonable, as those who confer their patronage will discover.

A New Hardware Establishment.

Two doors below the depot of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Cleveland Railroad, Allegheny City, Whitesides & Drum have opened an extensive hardware store with a stock large enough for jobbing and varied enough for a retail trade, embracing a full line for house builders' purposes and nearly every thing required for farming, shop or family use. Mr. Whitesides has for fifteen years been a valued salesman in the old and extensive house of Logan, Gregg & Co., Wood street, and is of course thoroughly acquainted with the local market. With this large experience and his well known character for integrity and accommodating disposition, and with the valuable aid of Mr. Drum, when the city can spare him from the office of Mayor, we predict for the enterprising firm a prosperous future.

Serious Charges.—Mary Miller, a widow, residing on Market street, in rear of Openheimer's clothing store, made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, charging James Samuels with comitting rape and adultery. Samuels is employed as salesman by Openheimer. The deponent alleges that the accused came into her room a few evenings since, and in spite of all resistance she could offer, violated her person. Having ascertained that he was a married man she made the information for adultery. Samuels was arrested and held to bail in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at court.

A Correction.—In our police report yesterdry we stated that a disgraceful fight occurred in the Broadway saloon, which, we have since ascertained, was incorrect. The difficulty took place during the temporary absence of Mr. Vierheller, the proprietor, and occurred in the dining room, between one of the attendants and a man who had formerly been employed in the establishment. A hearing was had in the case yesterday evening, when the prosecutor was required to pay the costs.

Alleged Forgery.—John Rodgers made information before Alderman Strain, yesterday, charging C. Otto Hess with forgery. He alleges that the accused presented, at one of the banks in this city a promissory note for $300, payable three months after date to C. Otto Hess & Co., purporting to be signed by John Rodgers, and endorsed by C. Otto Hess & Co. The signature of Rodgers is said to be a forgery. The accused was arrested and held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for a hearing.

Throwing Stones.—The boys in East Birmingham have for some time past been amusing themselves by throwing stones through the windows of the old public school house, now the German Turners' Hall, in that borough, and yesterday Officer Zeddle caught William Cuder thus engaged and arrested him. He was taken before Justice Ammon, who released him upon payment of a fine of one dollar and costs.

Public Meeting.—A meeting of the citizens of the Ninth ward, opposed to the vacation of Spruce alley, is to be held at the Public School House, in said ward, on Friday the 22d inst., at 7½ o'clock P. M.

Cleaning Up.—The Street Commissioners are having the streets throughout the city thoroughly cleaned. Fifth street, above Smithfield, was scraped and the dirt removed from it yesterday.

To be Paved.—Smallman street, in the Ninth ward, is being graded preparatory to being paved.

A Convenient Excuse.

John Kane, a gentleman from the west, arrived in the city Tuesday evening, and being an unpretentious man desired to put up at a cheap boarding house during his sojourn. Upon making that fact known at the Union Depot, he was directed to a boarding house on Liberty street opposite the depot. He at once picked up his baggage, a carpet bag, which contained all his extra clothing, and repaired to the boarding house, which is kept by Mrs. Keck. He deposited his carpet bag with the landlady, and after supper started out to attend to some business. During his absence he met a friend, who insisted upon entertaining him while in the city, and took him home with him. The next morning he returned to the boarding where he had left his baggage, and after paying for his supper asked for his baggage, and was informed that the house had been robbed the night previous, and that his baggage, with that of several others, had been taken. He made information before Alderman McMasters, charging Mrs. K. with larceny by bailee. She was arrested, and waiving a hearing was held to bail for her appearance at Court.

County Loan.

The Commissioners for erecting the County Workhouse have negotiated with the Dollar Savings Bank for a loan to the County of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. It is very creditable to this venerable Savings Bank that out of the great confidence reposed in its management the depositors have constantly increased to the present enormous aggregate, and the contingent fund has become so large that, without the slightest prejudice to its credit or usefulness, the whole amount of this loan can be safely spared, and equally creditable we think that the institution, instead of investing in foreign or extraneous securities, has preferred to extend her favors to one of our local municipalities. We should be additionally gratified if the Dollar Savings, or some kindred home institution, would take the Water Extension Loan now offered by the city. In this way the money institutions of our city would foster and advance a class of enterprises in which every citizen is interested and prove themselves a public blessing.

Who Got the Whisky?

Samuel Thompson, a liquor dealer, from Brownsville, made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, charging Charles H. McGraw, of the Third ward, this city, with larceny by bailee. He alleges that some weeks since he forwarded a barrel of whisky, worth $129, to the care of McGraw, for a Mr. Lucas, who resides some distance from the city. Lucas never received the whisky, and it is stated that McGraw, instead of sending the liquor to Lucas, tapped the barrel and retailed it to the "Mud Larks." This will perhaps account for several big drunks in that vicinity. McGraw was arrested and held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at Court.

Utility and Economy.

A considerable experience has taught us the dear lesson of the want of an ice chest. The losses of a single summer in a common sized family, in spoiled meats, decayed vegetables, rotten eggs, rancid butter, stale melons, sour milk, &c., &c., will exceed the cost of two ice chests. We have found the "X L All" chests, sold by George W. Hubley, at his house furnishing warehouse, No. 68 Federal street, Allegheny, although we have tried several others, to really X L all of them. Indeed our "X L All" is so X L N T that we wonder how we ever did without it, and we commend it to our readers as well for its economy as its convenience.

Row on Sixth Street.—Ernest Wennell, a German, residing on Sixth street, made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging John Kirkpatrick and John Robinson with assault and battery. He alleges that they came into his saloon on Tuesday and made an unprovoked attack upon him. Kirkpatrick it appears struck him and knocked him down. They were arrested and after a hearing Robinson was fined one dollar and costs for disorderly conduct, and Kirkpatrick held to bail for his appearance at Court. At the request of the prosecutor the case was afterwards compromised, and the accused discharged.

The Concert To-Night.—Let none of our readers forget that to-night there will be given, under the auspices of the favorably known and highly talented Allegheny Quartette Club, a grand concert of sacred and secular vocal music, in the Fifth United Presbyterian Church, corner of Webster and Washington streets. The proceeds are to be applied to the Sabbash School attached to the congregation, and as the programme, which we publish entire on our seventh page, is specially attractive, we trust there will be in attendance a large and appreciative audience.

The Lecture at Lafayette Hall.—The lecture at Lafayette Hall last evening, on the subject of Odd Fellowship, by Past Grand Sire Nicholson, was listened to with marked attention by a large and intelligent audience. The lecture on this occasion fully sustained his brilliant reputation as an eloquent orator. His subject was handled in a manner that evinced thorough research and rare ability.

Narrow Escape.—A deck hand on a tow boat fell overboard into the Allegheny river, near the Hand street bridge, Tuesday night, and narrowly escaped drowning. He was rescued by some of the hands on the boat, who hearing him fall into the water, immediately lowered a yawl and went to his assistance. He was almost exhausted when they found him.

Accident.—An accident occurred on the Panhandle Railroad yesterday, near Walker's Mills, by which two cars were considerably damaged. The train was running at an ordinary rate of speed when two passenger cars, filled with passengers, jumped the track and ran into a bank. No person was injured so far as we were able to learn.

The International Bank of Franklin, Pa., will be opened on Monday, under most favorable auspices. Col. James Bleakley is President and his son, William J. Bleakley, Esq., has assumed the duties of Cashier. We wish the Bank a large measure of prosperity.

Committed.—John Wright, charged, on oath of M. A. Thompson, with obtaining goods under false pretence, was arrested yesterday, and after a hearing before Alderman Donaldson was committed to jail in default of bail for his appearance at Court.

Confiscation.—The confiscation of butter on account of light weight has been unusually large during the past month. Since February no less than two hundred and fifty-one pounds have been seized and turned over to the Guardians of the Poor.

Coming Down.—There was a heavy decline in the price of butter in the market yesterday. In the morning it sold at fifty cents per pound, but before the market closed it was freely offered at thirty cents, and was very dull at that.

THERE was in attendance at the Opera House last night a very small audience—another practical illustration of the good taste of the people.

Policeman Appointed.—John Kennedy has been appointed on the Allegheny police force. He will doubtless make an efficient officer.

Increasing.—Business at Burgess Barker's, in South Pittsburgh, is on the increase, and he has increased the size of his office.

Office hours from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Surety of the Peace.—Julia Schall made information before the Mayor against John Gannon, for surety of the peace. She alleges that he threatened to kick her brains out. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The Popularity of Burnett's Preparations has caused worthless imitations.—St. Paul Press. TTSW

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 20, 1868.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. EGGLESTON reported a bill, which was recommitted to the Committee on Commerce, authorizing the taking possession of the bar known as Pas L'Outre on the Mississippi river, for the construction of a canal without expense to Government.

Mr. INGERSOLL introduced a bill to incorporate the National Publication Company. Referred to Committee on District of Columbia.

The SPEAKER submitted a communication from the Secretary of the Navy, enclosing copies of all correspondence between that Department and other parties relative to the sale of the iron-clads Oneida and Catawba, which was appropriately referred.

A vote on the question of adjournment till Saturday showed no quorum. It was finally agreed, by unanimous consent, that when the House adjourned to-day it be till Saturday, with the understanding that no business would be transacted on that day.

Mr. INGERSOLL, by unanimous consent, made an explanation, to the effect that the Chicago Republican of the 18th, made an assault on him of a scandalous and perhaps malicious character. The editor, in reviewing an article which appeared in the Sunday Chicago Tribune of the day before, said it was not surprising that the Tribune should have derived information in advance of other journals as to what the vote on impeachment would be, it having means of information denied to other journals. That paper charged that he took a night trip from Washington to Chicago to carry the news to the Republican, and said it was a very successful visit for the Trumbull-Grimes plot—this famous go-between. He supposed this remark to refer to him. That paper charged that there was a plot between certain parties to secure the acquittal of the President and that he was in that plot, as was also the Chicago Tribune. He stated that he went to Illinois thirteen days before the verdict on impeachment was given. So far as he was concerned, the charge from the beginning to the end was absolutely and unqualifiedly false. It had not a shadow to rest upon. During the time he was in Chicago he neither met nor conversed with any man connected with the Tribune. So far as he knew during the trial of impeachment, he never spoke to any Senator in regard to what his vote should be, thought to be, or might be.

Adjourned until Saturday.

Massachusetts Democratic Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WORCESTER, May 20.—The Democratic State Convention met here to-day to elect delegates to the National Convention. One hundred and five towns and cities were represented by five hundred delegates. Hon. Chas. G. Green, of Boston, was chosen President, with fifty Vice Presidents. The Convention was quite animated, but by a strong vote declined to pass any resolutions. No formal speeches were made. The delegates generally were desirous to leave the party free to take such position as circumstances may hereafter indicate as favorable to success.

John Quincy Adams, late Democratic candidate for Governer, made a brief speech in response to a call, after which three cheers were given for the next Governor of Massachusetts.

The following delegates were chosen: Hon. J. G. Abbott, Reuben Noble, Josiah Bontwell, George W. Gill. Alternates, J. K. Tarcox, T. H. Sweetser, T. F. Plunkett, George Johnson.

FROM EUROPE.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

FREE TRADE POLICY.

PARIS, May 20.—In the Corps Legislatif to-day, during the debate on the interpellation in regard to commercial treaties, Minister Rouher made an important speech defending the free trade policy of the government. He declared that the commercial crisis raised in this Chamber was now ended. France would not renounce the treaty of 1860 with Great Britain, nor forego the advantages of other commercial treaties of similar character, nor would she destroy the good effects of the vote of the chamber in the case of commercial reform, for the tendency of the Government was to restore the tone of reform to the Legislature. He concluded by expressing the conviction that free trade constituted the basis of the future greatness and commercial prosperity of the country.
